NOTICE OF NONDISCRIMINATORY POLICY AS TO STUDENTS

It is the policy of St. Joseph's College not to discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national or ethnic origin, age, handicap, or marital status in its educational programs, admissions policies, employment policies, financial aid or other school administered programs. This policy is implemented in compliance with all applicable federal, state, and local statutes or regulations. Inquiries regarding this policy should be addressed to Compliance Coordinator, St. Joseph's College, 245 Clinton Avenue, Brooklyn, NY 11205-3688.

THE COLLEGE

MISSION AND GOALS OF ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE

The mission of St. Joseph's College is to provide a strong academic and value-oriented education at the undergraduate and graduate levels, rooted in a liberal arts tradition that supports provision for career preparation and enhancement. The College aims in this way to prepare each student for a life characterized by integrity, intellectual and spiritual values, social responsibility, and service—a life that is worthy of the College's motto, Esse non videri: "To be, not to seem."

Independent and coeducational, St. Joseph's College provides affordable private education that serves a diverse population of academically eligible students.

St. Joseph's College affirms the dignity, freedom, and inherent value of each person. This affirmation is realized through a student-centered environment wherein the faculty's primary commitment is to excellence in teaching. In this open, supportive atmosphere, students are challenged to develop their full potential and are encouraged to acquire a spirit of inquiry and a joy in learning.

To accomplish this mission, St. Joseph's College has established the following goals:

- to offer curricula that foster the knowledge and intellectual skills associated with the liberally educated person;
- to encourage students to develop personal value systems and responsible self-direction;
- to foster committed participation in the local and global communities;
- to help students develop as whole persons by providing individual attention, interactive teaching, and opportunities for active participation in academic and extracurricular programs;
- to prepare students for their careers by offering the necessary professional and pre-professional education;
- to provide for the needs of a diversified student population with varied educational and professional experiences;
- to foster an environment of openness to the exploration and understanding of diverse ideas, traditions, and cultures;
- to support educational programs and services that will contribute to the vitality of the communities served by the Brooklyn and Long Island Campuses.

HISTORY

St. Joseph's College for Women, as it was then known, was founded by the Sisters of St. Joseph of Brentwood, in response to the need for a day college for young women. The College received its provisional charter from the Regents of the University of the State of New York on February 24, 1916. From its earliest days, the College articulated its mission in terms of academic quality, value orientation, and career preparation. These values, coupled with the financial support and leadership of the Sisters of St. Joseph, brought early success and the College quickly outgrew its original facilities at 286 Washington Avenue. In 1918 the College moved to its present site at 245 Clinton Avenue, and the first baccalaureate degrees were conferred on twelve graduates on June 17, 1920. The College was accredited in 1928 by the Commission on Higher Education of the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. The Regents granted St. Joseph's College an Absolute Charter in 1929. Reverend William T. Dillon, J.D., Professor of Philosophy, who served as Dean of the College and later its President, guided its growth during the significant years that followed.

Under the visionary leadership of Msgr. Dillon, the College placed great emphasis on the holistic development of each student, encouraging personal independence and integrity. This student-centered culture has continued to characterize the College. Academically, the College pioneered in the study of child development, and in 1934 opened a laboratory pre-school, now the renowned Dillon Child Study Center.

With a reputation for strong academic programs and a faculty dedicated to excellence in teaching, the College undertook its first extensive building program during the presidency of Sr. Vincent Therese Tuohy. McEntegart Hall Library opened in 1965 and the Dillon Child Study Center in 1968.

S. George Aquin O'Connor's presidency, 1969–1997, coincided with a period of radical change in higher education. To meet new societal needs, the College admitted men to full matriculation, developed the Long Island Campus in Patchogue, Long Island, created the School of Professional and Graduate Studies for adult students, introduced undergraduate programs in Accounting, Business, Nursing, health professions, and a Master's program in Child Study. In support of these academic programs, Callahan Library was constructed on the Patchogue Campus in 1988. For the enrichment of student life, the Danzi Athletic Center opened on the Suffolk Campus in 1997.

S. Elizabeth A. Hill, MA, JD, elected President in 1997, has emphasized the importance of both continuity and change. Undergraduate programs continue to grow even as the College has introduced new Master's programs in Management, Executive MBA, Literacy, Nursing, Special Education, and Human Services Management. Reflecting the technological world in which we live, all college classrooms are now smart classrooms, equipped with the latest technological support. All buildings are wired, and the two campuses are connected with video-conferencing, enabling a number of courses to be taught simultaneously on both campuses. The Business and Technology Center opened on the Long Island Campus in 2001. The purchase of the St. Angela Hall property in 2001 made possible major renovations in the landmark-status buildings on the Brooklyn Campus.

At ninety two years, the College looks back on a history of innovation and adaptability to changing circumstances and needs. The College has grown from its roots in Brooklyn, with its first graduating class of twelve students to two campuses and an enrollment of over 5300 students and twenty-one thousand alumni. The College looks forward to celebrating the one hundredth anniversary of its founding with renewed dedication to transforming lives, one student at a time.

LOCATION

St. Joseph's College has two campuses: the main campus is located in the residential Clinton Hill section of Brooklyn, and the Long Island branch campus is located in Patchogue, Long Island.

The Main Campus: St. Joseph's College, as an urban college with a campus, offers easy access to all transit lines, to the Long Island Expressway, to all bridges in Brooklyn, Manhattan, and Queens, as well as to the Verrazano-Narrows Bridge to Staten Island. This convenient location brings students from every part of the Greater New York Metropolitan area to the College each day, where they enjoy the freedom of campus life while profiting from the many cultural advantages of New York City. Within the space of one half hour, students leaving St. Joseph's College may find themselves in the Metropolitan Museum of Art, the 42nd Street Library, Carnegie Hall and Lincoln Center, the Broadway theatre district, Madison Square Garden, or Citi Field.

The College itself stands in the center of one of the nation's most diversified academic communities, consisting of six colleges and universities within a two-mile radius of each other. St. Joseph's College offers its students easy access to the other colleges and such cultural facilities as the Brooklyn Academy of Music, the Brooklyn Public Library, and the Brooklyn Museum of Art.

The Long Island Campus: St. Joseph's branch campus is located in Patchogue. The thirty-two acre campus is bounded on the south by West Roe Boulevard and on the north by Sunrise Highway. It is easily accessible from the south shore locations via Southern State, Sunrise Highway (Exit 52), and from central and northern Long Island via Veterans Highway, Patchogue-Holbrook Road, Nichols Road, or Route 112.

FACILITIES

BROOKLYN CAMPUS

The Administration Building–Tuohy Hall

Named in memory of a late President of the College, the Administration Building contains classrooms, an auditorium, computer facilities, student government offices, student lounges, the gymnasium, fitness center and administrative offices. The chemistry and physics laboratories, and the art studio are on the third floor.

Burns Hall

This beautiful Federal-style building contains formal parlors, a formal dining room, a chapel, The Admissions Offices, student lounge and kitchen, and the biology instructional and research laboratories.

St. Joseph's Hall

This five story building houses the Office of Institutional Advancement, the Alumni Office, several academic department offices, and the Psychology Laboratory. The beautiful Bloodgood garden, located behind St. Joseph's Hall, provides space for alumni reunions, student gatherings, and receptions.

Lorenzo Hall

Lorenzo Hall, located at 265 Clinton Avenue, houses the administrative offices of the School of Professional and Graduate Studies.

McEntegart Hall

McEntegart Hall Library, in a fully air conditioned five-level structure, has a large reading area and numerous individual study carrels that provide an excellent environment for research. In addition, McEntegart Hall houses the college archives, a curriculum library, three computer laboratories, the Library Instructional Technology Center, the Academic Center, a nursing education laboratory, and a video conference room. There are also eight classrooms, a chapel, cafeteria, and faculty and student lounges. The library collection includes more than 152,000 volumes, nearly 700 videos, DVDs, and other supplementary materials as well as over 600 online and print journals. Patrons have access to the Internet and to numerous full-text electronic databases. A fully automated and integrated library system, Voyager 7.0 by ExLibris™ Group, ensures efficient retrieval and management of library resources in the McEntegart Hall Library and Callahan Library on the Long Island Campus. Membership in ALB (Academic Libraries of Brooklyn) and METRO (Metropolitan New York Library Council) gives students access to libraries throughout the city and provides resource sharing on a regional basis. Full membership in the international bibliographic utility, OCLC (Online Computer Library Center), allows limitless access to all types of resources.

St. Angela Hall

This former elementary and high school was acquired in 2001 and contains 16 classrooms, the ACES Center, the Office of Campus Ministry, some faculty offices, an auditorium, conference room and lounge.

Computer Facilities

A high-speed fiber optic intra-campus network connects all offices, instructional facilities, computer laboratories and libraries on both the Brooklyn and Long Island campuses. The network provides Internet access to all students, faculty and staff.

An integrated online library system enables students to search for and check out books at either campus. Online databases and other electronic resources are available to students from either campus, or from their home computers.

All classrooms are—smart classrooms—which offer Internet access, DVD, VCR, projection systems, and whiteboards. Two wireless laptop classrooms with “smart classroom” features provide flexible instruction spaces with the latest technologies. Videoconferencing facilities connect the two campuses, allowing for real-time distance learning in a small group setting. Wireless access for students is available in the library, lounges, cafeteria, and other common areas. Students and faculty are provided with college e-mail accounts.

Dillon Child Study Center

This Center, an enduring memorial to Monsignor William T. Dillon, late President of the College and founder of the Child Study Department and its Laboratory Preschool, opened in 1968.

The first floor of the Dillon Center contains the offices of the Director, the school nurse, staff offices and a conference room. The Center's preschool inclusion class with observation room, a mixed three and four year old classroom, and a multi-purpose room are also located on the first floor. Two preschool classrooms and Kindergarten room, each with its own observation booth, are located on the second floor, as well as staff offices with additional rooms for therapy, computer and library resources. These facilities make possible increased service to the community.

The Center provides for an enrollment of approximately 100 preschool children. The Center also facilitates the growth of auxiliary programs and inter-institutional cooperation with nursing schools, colleges, and other educational agencies.

The Outdoor Theatre

Overlooking the Mall is the Molloy Memorial Outdoor Theatre.

LONG ISLAND CAMPUS

The main building which was named O'Connor Hall in 1997 in honor of S. George Aquin O'Connor, contains:

Administrative and Faculty Offices
Classrooms and Computer Centers
Biology, Chemistry, Physics and Psychology Laboratories
Nursing Dept. Laboratory
Art Studios and Music Room

Local History Center
Faculty and Student Lounges
Offices for Counseling
Cafeteria
Auditorium and Chapel

The Callahan Library at the Long Island Campus is a modern 25,000 sq. ft., free-standing facility with seating for more than 300 and access to over 50 computers. A curriculum library, computer labs, three classrooms, seminar rooms, administrative offices, and a video conference room are housed in this building. Holdings include over 170,000 books, dvds, videos, and other instructional aids as well as over 600 online and print journals. Membership in the international bibliographic utility, OCLC (Online Computer Library Center), allows almost limitless access to available information. The hours of library service are adjusted to meet student need and are posted in the lobby as well as on the library website.

Off-campus resources include the McEntegart Hall Library at St. Joseph's Brooklyn Campus with over 152,000 volumes. Callahan's memberships in both the Long Island Library Resources Council and Suffolk County Library Association facilitate cooperative relationships with other academic and special libraries on Long Island.

The Business and Technology Center, opened in Fall 2002, contains over 150 state of the art computer workstations and flat monitors. "Smart classroom" technologies including Internet access, DVD, VCR, projection systems, and whiteboards, have been installed in every classroom and computer lab. A wireless "model classroom" offers emerging technologies in a flexible classroom environment. Videoconferencing facilities connect the two campuses, allowing for real-time distance learning in a small group setting.

A high-speed, fiber optic intra-campus network connects all offices, instructional facilities, computer laboratories and libraries on both the Brooklyn and Long Island campuses. The network provides Internet access to all students, faculty and staff. Wireless access for students is available in the library, cafeteria, lounges, and other common areas. Students and faculty are provided with college e-mail accounts.

An integrated online library system enables students to search for and check out books at either campus. Online databases and other electronic resources are available to students from either campus, or from their home computers.

The Clare Rose Repertory Theatre is an integral part of the development of St. Joseph's College and serves as a major teaching facility for the College's theatre courses, as well as the performance space for the College and local theatre productions.

A multi-story Academic Center has been created in the area formerly used as a gymnasium. This building contains eight classrooms, student lounges and office space, and a large meeting room.

The John A. Danzi Recreation/Fitness Center opened in Spring 1997. It includes a competition size swimming pool, aerobics studio, strength training room, fitness room, 12,000 square foot gymnasium and an elevated track.

In addition, the Campus features athletic fields, and parking facilities for more than 900 cars. This beautiful suburban setting provides a unique background for a satisfying intellectual, social, and extra-curricular collegiate experience.

ACADEMIC CALENDAR

Classes for the academic year 2009-2010 will begin on September 8, and for 2010-2011, classes will begin on September 7. To accommodate the needs of the adult population, courses are scheduled in varying patterns – days, evenings, and weekends – including fourteen weekday sessions, and six-week and twelve-week sessions. These are available for Fall and Spring semesters, with a variation of the pattern during the Summer and for the Long Island Campus Weekend College Trimester Program. Students should consult the schedule of classes each semester for specific class meeting times and dates.

ADMISSION AND FINANCES

It is the policy of St. Joseph's College not to discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national and ethnic origin, age, handicap, or marital status in its educational programs, admission policies, employment policies, financial aid, or other school administered programs. This policy is implemented in compliance with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

An applicant wishing to pursue an undergraduate degree or certificate program within the School of Professional and Graduate Studies must be an adult with a high school diploma or its equivalent and be deemed capable of completing the requirements for the degree or certificate. In addition to having met the general admission requirements of the School, students typically have postsecondary education and training and have acquired, through experience, the skills and knowledge appropriate to the degree or certificate. Exceptions to this are made with the approval of the Dean. Additional requirements for majors and certificate programs are indicated in the Curricular Offerings section of the catalogue.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

The application procedure for undergraduate degrees and certificates offered through the School of Professional and Graduate Studies (other than the Bachelor of Science with a major in Nursing) begins when the applicant submits evidence of the high school diploma or equivalent and meets with a School admission counselor at either the Brooklyn or Long Island Campus. During this meeting, the applicant will discuss the program with the counselor and complete an application form.

As part of the admission procedure, the applicant will complete a brief writing exercise at the College and have it evaluated by a writing instructor. Based on the applicant's prior training and experience, the applicant's writing ability, and the admission interview, the counselor may make the decision regarding admittance to a degree or certificate program. The counselor may also help the applicant plan a program suitable to the educational needs and goals of the applicant. (See Curricular Offerings for additional requirements and procedures for admission to major and certificate programs.)

An applicant may be provisionally accepted pending receipt of official records of prior education. Such a person may enroll in up to 18 credit hours of coursework. Only after all official records have been received and evaluated will the admission process be complete and the student fully admitted.

When evidence of a high school diploma or its equivalent does not appear on transfer credit documentation, it will be necessary for the student to submit such evidence in order to be fully admitted.

A completed medical form must be submitted. New York State Public Health Law requires all students who were born on or after January 1, 1957 to be immunized against measles, mumps and rubella. Proof of immunity must be submitted to the Office of Admissions prior to enrollment.

A completed Meningococcal Vaccination Response Form as required by New York State Public Health Law must be submitted.

Conditional Acceptance

An applicant who has satisfied the requirements for admission and is deemed capable of college-level coursework but needs academic skill development is accepted on a "conditional" basis. A person in this category is permitted to register for no more than 12 hours of coursework, to be specified by the admission counselor. Upon satisfactory completion of the specified courses, the student will meet with an advisor to plan additional coursework as determined by that advisor (not applicable to Nursing majors).

Non-Matriculated Status

A person may opt to enroll in a limited number of courses for personal or professional enrichment as a non-matriculated student and may accumulate as many as 18 credits. The student may not take additional courses unless he/she applies and is accepted for matriculation. The person seeking to enroll in this category will be subject to the application requirements and procedures described above.

An applicant who has not submitted sufficient material to be provisionally admitted may enroll on a Restricted Non-Matriculated basis. No more than two courses may be taken while in this category, neither of which may be an English writing course. An applicant can only be in this category for one semester.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Registration at St. Joseph's College is contingent upon admission to the college and acquisition of a valid student visa (F-1) from the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service. For further information contact the Office of International Student Services at (718) 940-5830, or visit our website at www.sjcny.edu.

PRIOR LEARNING ASSESSMENT

St. Joseph's College recognizes that adults beginning the baccalaureate degree oftentimes bring with them knowledge and skills acquired through a variety of modes. Prior Learning Assessment is an overarching concept that affords students the opportunity to earn credit for their prior college-level learning. Within the School of Professional and Graduate Studies, the awarding of credit for this prior learning is determined through the following:

Collegiate Coursework

The School of Professional and Graduate Studies provides for the transfer of up to 96 credit hours from accredited four-year collegiate institutions, and up to 82 credit hours from accredited, community or junior colleges.

The School also provides for the transfer of up to 60 credit hours from selected New York State Education Department-approved, associate degree granting proprietary institutions.

See also the transfer credit policy affecting the Bachelor of Science with a major in Nursing.

College Proficiency Examinations

Matriculated students within the School of Professional and Graduate Studies may apply for credit or placement for the equivalent of St. Joseph's College courses on the basis of their successful completion of examinations sponsored by:

1. CLEP—The College Board's College-Level Examination Program
2. EXCELSIOR COLLEGE EXAMINATIONS—The New York State Education Department's Regents College Examinations.
3. DSST—DANTES Subject Standardized Tests. (Not applicable to Bachelor of Science with a major in Nursing students.)

Students who wish credit or placement on the basis of any of these examinations should have a copy of their scores forwarded from the sponsoring agency to the Registrar of St. Joseph's College. When a decision has been reached, the student will receive written confirmation of the credit or placement granted. For information on other proficiency examinations, consult an advisor or the Prior Experiential Learning Assessment Coordinator.

Non-Collegiate Sponsored Instruction

The decision to accept credit toward the baccalaureate degree for work completed in settings other than approved collegiate institutions is done on an individual basis.

1. The School provides for the transfer of credits for individuals who have completed New York State recognized professional training programs, where such programs are at the collegiate level.
2. The School provides for the awarding of college credit as per the Guide to the Evaluation of Educational Experience in the Armed Service, the Directory of the National Program on Non-Collegiate Sponsored Instruction, and the National Guide to Educational Credit for Training Programs, and the Joint Statement on the Transfer and Award of Credit from the American Council on Education.
3. Awarding of credit for non-collegiate sponsored instruction does not extend to the Bachelor of Science with a major in Nursing.

General Limitations on Prior Learning Credit

1. The School does not accept prior learning credit earned from duplicative coursework or proficiencies.
2. Credit earned in remedial coursework or at a pre-collegiate level is not accepted for prior learning credit.
3. Credits earned with grades below C may be restricted or refused for transfer.
4. Prior learning credit is accepted but not computed in the grade-point average.
5. Inactive students who have not had a prior learning transfer evaluation will be subject to the policies in force at the time of their readmission.
6. St. Joseph's College reserves the right to accept credit, including credit earned at the College by non-matriculated students, in a way best calculated to preserve the integrity of its own degree.

Procedure for Requesting Prior Learning Credit

Students wishing to receive credit for prior learning should contact an advisor to find out which prior learning documentation is necessary; e.g., official transcripts, college proficiency test results, copies of military training records (DD form 214 and in-service training records), copies of professional certificates, etc. Official copies of the relevant documents must be sent directly from the institutions/agencies to the St. Joseph's College campus where students made initial application.

Prior Learning/transfer credit evaluations are typically not made until after students submit an application and are admitted at least provisionally.

See also the transfer credit request procedure for the Bachelor of Science with a major in Nursing.

Prior Experiential Learning Assessment

The School of Professional and Graduate Studies students, except for Nursing majors, with extensive and varied experiential learning may participate in the Prior Experiential Learning Assessment (P.E.L.A.) Program, which gives students the opportunity to apply for credit for their prior experiential learning. Validated learning, not the experience alone, is the basis for awarding credit. It should be noted that the School of Professional and Graduate Studies does not award credit for “having lived,” but rather for having mastered—through professional, creative, volunteer, or other experience—knowledge and skills that are deemed to be at the college level and are applicable in the context of the student’s degree program.

Prior to participating in the P.E.L.A. Program, students must be fully matriculated, have satisfactorily completed ENG 103 Writing for Effective Communication, and have earned 36 credits toward their program at St. Joseph’s or elsewhere. A 2.5 cumulative index in coursework completed at St. Joseph’s will be required to register for GS 110 Portfolio and Career Development Seminar. Students must take GS 110 before their last semester.

To register for this Pass/No Credit Seminar, students must meet with a P.E.L.A. advisor and obtain written approval. (The P.E.L.A. Coordinator reserves the right to limit students’ programs during the semester in which the students are enrolled in the Seminar.) The Seminar is a mentored course designed to facilitate the assessment of prior experiential learning for the purpose of developing an experiential learning portfolio. In part, the Seminar consists of individualized exercises designed to identify acquired skills and knowledge, and culminates in presenting these as college-credit worthy, relating these to the student’s degree program and career goals.

Credit earned through the P.E.L.A. Program is applicable to the major (as explained below), liberal arts, and elective portion of the curriculum. With regard to the Bachelor of Science degrees in Community Health and Human Services and in Health Administration, P.E.L.A. credit can be used to satisfy the Major Electives; for the Bachelor of Science in Organizational Management, P.E.L.A. credit can be applied to Elective Business Courses. Credits awarded through the P.E.L.A. Program are not applicable to the prescribed minimum of 21 credits of coursework toward the major that must be taken at St. Joseph’s College. The maximum P.E.L.A. credit award is 27 credit hours.

An integral part of the Seminar is the validation process, which consists of assembling all relevant documents into a prior experiential learning portfolio under the supervision of a qualified mentor. Portfolios are evaluated by faculty members, and a credit award is made by the P.E.L.A. Evaluation Committee taking into consideration content, competence level, college-credit appropriateness, and applicability to the student’s degree program. Notification of the credit award is sent to the students by the Registrar prior to the conclusion of the next regular semester. At the time credit awards are made, students’ records will be updated to reflect the addition of credits.

Since students applying for P.E.L.A. credit work closely under the tutelage of a mentor well versed in prior experiential learning assessment, the likelihood of an appeal for reconsideration of the credit award is greatly reduced. In the event, however, that such a request is made, the P.E.L.A. Coordinator will review the portfolio in consultation with the appropriate department representative.

Students seeking P.E.L.A. credit are required to take the Portfolio and Career Development Seminar at the prevailing per credit charge. In addition, students are required to cover the cost associated with the evaluation of their portfolios; students will be billed the P.E.L.A. evaluation fee at the time of registration for GS 110. (See Statement of Costs.) Since the P.E.L.A. Program is distinct from the Proficiency Examination option of Prior Learning Assessment, students are obligated to pay all expenses related to proficiency examinations, independent of the P.E.L.A. evaluation fee.

Servicemembers Opportunity Colleges (SOC)

St. Joseph's College is a member of the Servicemembers Opportunity Colleges (SOC), a consortium of over 1800 institutions pledged to work with Servicemembers, their families, and veterans trying to earn degrees while pursuing demanding careers. As a SOC member, St. Joseph's College is committed to the transfer of relevant course credits, flexible academic residence requirements, and crediting learning from appropriate military training and work experience.

Students accepted for admission must make a tuition deposit at the time of registration. Full time students (12 or more credits semester, 9 or more credits trimester) pay $250; part-time students pay $80. (These amounts include a $5.00 I.D. Card Fee.) The deposit is not refundable, but it will be credited toward the first term's tuition. In certain instances, the non-refundable tuition deposit paid by a first semester student may be applied to the next semester.

A student's bill for tuition and fees is based on the number of credits for which a student intends to register, less applicable Financial Aid, Grants, or Scholarships for that semester. Scholarships or Student Aid may only be subtracted if all related applications and other information have been submitted on a timely basis. Payment of the remaining balance constitutes "Clearance" by the Bursar's Office.

Bills for the semester must be cleared by the Bursar's Office before students may attend class. Students who do not receive financial clearance from the Bursar's Office will not be officially registered at the College for that semester. Students may not enroll for a successive semester until their accounts have been completely satisfied.

St. Joseph's College makes available several tuition financing options through tuition deferment programs. The two monthly budgeting programs the College offers are The Tuition Management System and Academic Management Services. Basically, these programs are designed to afford students the opportunity to pay their educational expenses in monthly installments. Students may elect to contract with either of these services for a nominal initial participation fee prior to or at the beginning of each new academic year. Students interested in either of the two plans may obtain brochures and applications in the Bursar's Office. Additional information may be received by calling AMS at 1(800) 635-0120 and The Tuition Plan at 1(800) 722-4867.

Students who are unable to pay what is owed by the first day of class (other than those who are enrolled with either the Tuition Management System or Academic Management Services) will have their account automatically default to St. Joseph's College Tuition Extension Agreement. Unlike the other two deferment programs, under the St. Joseph's College Tuition Agreement, a finance charge will be assessed.

Questions regarding the College's tuition policy should be addressed to the Bursar at the Long Island Campus at (631) 687-4555.

Students who fail to comply with these regulations will be subject to suspension until the requirements are met.

SEMESTER FLAT-RATE: The flat-rate for tuition covers 33 credits per academic year. In this way, the College's requirement of 128 credits can be achieved in eight terms. Full-time students—those taking at least 12 credits—are charged the flat rate. (See Statement of Costs for Academic Year.) Intersession and Summer session courses are not included within the flat-rate tuition. Full-time students who take more than 33 credits per academic year will be charged for each additional credit. Up to 18 of the 33 credits may be taken in one semester without an additional charge.

HEALTH AND ACCIDENT INSURANCE (effective Spring 2010)

All full-time students will be required to carry Health and Accident Insurance. This fee will be charged in the Fall and Spring semesters. If a student is currently covered by another policy of greater or equal value, the SJC Insurance may be waived. Waiver forms are available in the Dean of Students Office, on both campuses, or can be downloaded from the SJC website at www.sjcnj.edu. Please read and follow all the instructions on the Waiver Form. This form must be completed and returned to the Office of Student Life each Fall by October 1. Health and Accident Insurance must be waived each year if not desired.

Students who were part-time in the Fall semester and full-time in the Spring semester will automatically receive insurance coverage for the Spring and will automatically be charged in the Spring semester only. Any student already covered by another policy may complete and submit a waiver form to the Dean of Students Office by February 1, each Spring.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS: International students who require insurance coverage in excess of the limits provided by the student accident and sickness plan can request enrollment in a plan tailored to the international student. International students who wish to participate in the International Plan must obtain an Enrollment Form from the Dean of Students Office.

TRIMESTER FLAT-RATE: The flat-rate tuition will be charged to trimester students taking 12 to 15 credits per trimester. Once the session has begun, flat-rate students who change their programs to less than 12 credits will continue to be responsible for the flat-rate tuition charge (as opposed to the per-credit rate.) Those trimester students who take more than 15 credits per trimester will be charged for each additional credit at the per credit rate. Intersession courses are not included within the flat-rate tuition and must be paid for per credit.

PER CREDIT: Students taking fewer than 12 credits per semester/trimester are charged the per credit rate.

Neither a transcript nor a diploma will be issued until all financial obligations have been settled. The College reserves the right to alter tuition charges and fees when such changes become necessary.

WITHDRAWAL FROM A COURSE OR FROM THE COLLEGE:
TUITION REFUNDS

Full-time students who receive permission to withdraw from a single course are not entitled to a refund, unless the withdrawal involves extra credits, paid for by the point. In such cases, the student may ask for a refund of the extra tuition within the first four weeks of the term. Once the session has begun, flat-rate students who change their programs to less than 12 credits will continue to be responsible for the flat-rate tuition charge (as opposed to the per-credit rate.) Part-time students who withdraw from a course may also apply for a refund.

Withdrawal from the College may entitle a student to a refund of tuition, but not of fees. The date of withdrawal is considered when calculating refunds. Tuition liability is based on the date the change of program form is received by the Registrar.

The percentage of refund will be determined according to the following schedule:

Weekday and Twelve-week Classes
Withdrawal Effective	% of Refund
Prior to First Class Meeting	100%
After First and After Second Class Meeting	80%
After Third Class Meeting	60%
After Fourth Class Meeting	40%
After Fifth Class Meeting	20%
After Sixth Class Meeting	0%
Six-Week Sessions
Prior to First Class Meeting	100%
After First Class Meeting	80%
After Second Class Meeting	40%
After Third Class Meeting	0%
Weekend College Trimester Classes
Prior to First Class Meeting	100%
Before Second Weekend	80%
Before Third Weekend	40%
After Third Weekend	0%

The rate of refund for any unique class scheduling configuration is pro-rated according to the above refund schedule.

This schedule does not apply to the tuition deposit required of first time students. This deposit is not refundable. In the absence of written notification, the date of withdrawal is determined by the Dean.

Refunds of financial aid awards, student loans, etc., are not refundable until the actual funds have been received by the College and the student's eligibility for the funds has been determined.

Federal Title IV recipients should see the Return of Title IV Funds Section of this catalogue.

A refund will not be granted to a student who is dismissed or who withdraws while under disciplinary action.

A student who feels that his/her individual circumstances warrant an exception to the College's refund policy may submit a written appeal for special consideration to the Controller, Matthew Brellis. The Controller's decision is subject to appeal to the Chief Financial Officer, Mr. John C. Roth.

Once the Bursar's Office has determined that a student is eligible to receive a refund, it will automatically be processed by the office. This typically occurs after the fifth calendar week of the semester.

If the refund includes funds from a Parent's Plus Loan, a separate "Refund Application Form" will be sent to the parent from the Bursar's Office. This form requires the parent's signature before any funds can be released.

AWARDING OF DEGREES AND GRADUATION

Graduation exercises are held annually in June. Degrees, however, are granted three times a year (August, January, June). August and January graduates may elect to receive diplomas in February or wait until commencement. Students who expect to satisfy the requirements for the B.S. degree by the June commencement date must file an application for graduation by the previous October 15th. Students who require proof of graduation prior to commencement may request a letter of completion and/or transcript from the Registrar.

All students filing for graduation must have a total of 128 credits, at least 60 of which must be in the liberal arts.

Students who miss the deadline for graduation application will not receive diplomas until two months after the date of graduation. No diplomas will be mailed.

Where it appears that a student who is applying for graduation is requesting a change of major in order to graduate at an earlier date and where it appears that the student intends to complete another major at St. Joseph's College, the Dean - in consultation with the appropriate department chairpersons - reserves the right to deny the request.

Any change in program stated on the graduation application must be brought to the attention of the Registrar.

Students will be required to pay for all coursework required for graduation, even if this should exceed 128 credits. In those instances where this credit in excess of 128 would result in a student's being required to pay flat rate tuition, the Registrar may offer the student the option of doing a 1 or 2 credit independent study, thereby keeping the credit load under 12 and the tuition rate at the per credit basis. This applies only to the unrestricted elective portion of the program, not to any coursework required for the degree or certificate.

FINANCIAL AID

Application Instructions

All matriculating students may apply for financial aid (Bachelor of Science Degree; Certificate in Management; Certificate in Alcoholism and Addictions Counseling; Certificate in Criminology/Criminal Justice). Consideration for a scholarship or financial aid from St. Joseph's College is dependent upon making application and receiving official notification of acceptance into the college.

To be considered for federal, state and institutional sources of financial aid, students should follow these procedures each academic year.

1. Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) designating St. Joseph's College as a recipient. The student will be asked to enter one of St. Joseph's federal school codes, which are 002825 for the Brooklyn Campus and E00505 for the Long Island Campus. The FAFSA may be completed online at www.fafsa.ed.gov, or a paper FAFSA may be completed and mailed in to the Federal Student Aid Processor.

2. New York State Residents who plan to attend full-time should also complete the New York State Tuition Assistance Program (TAP) application. After completion of the FAFSA, a student may file the TAP application at www.hesc.org.

Brooklyn Undergraduate Code: 0755

Long Island Undergraduate Code: 0758

Long Island Trimester (Weekend College) Code: 0762

New York State Residents who plan to attend part-time should complete the NYS Aid for Part-time Study Application. The APTS application is available at the Office of Financial Aid.

3. If the student's FAFSA is selected by the processor for verification, the student will be asked to provide additional documentation to the Office of Financial Aid. The documentation will be compared to the FAFSA, and corrections will be made as necessary. The Office of Financial Aid must be in receipt of the documentation, and all necessary corrections must be made before awards can be disbursed.
4. Priority for certain financial aid programs will be given to students who adhere to the following recommended filing dates:

Brooklyn and Long Island Semester Students:

Fall entering new students:	February 25
Fall entering transfer students:	March 15
Continuing students:	April 30
Spring entering students:	November 1 (new and transfers)

Long Island Trimester Students:

Summer entering new students:	February 25
Fall entering students:	March 15
Continuing students:	April 1
Spring entering students:	November 1

Requirements and Responsibilities of Student Aid Recipients

All students who receive financial aid are responsible for understanding the academic standards they must meet in order to maintain eligibility for specific programs. Federal financial aid recipients should consult the Federal Financial Aid Programs section of this catalogue. Recipients of St. Joseph's college scholarships and grants should consult the St. Joseph's College Financial Aid Programs section of this catalogue. New York State financial aid recipients should consult the New York State Financial Aid Programs section of this catalogue.

Students must notify the Office of Financial Aid in writing of the amounts and sources of any outside aid that they may be receiving. For example, students should inform the Office of Financial Aid about a scholarship that they may be receiving from a community organization.

Federal Financial Aid Programs

To receive federal financial aid assistance, a student must: 1) have a high school diploma or a General Education Development (GED) certificate, pass a test approved by the U.S. Department of Education, meet other standards your state establishes that the Department approves, or complete a high school education in a home school setting that is treated as such under state law; 2) be working toward a degree or certificate in an eligible program; 3) be a U.S. citizen or eligible non-citizen; 4) have a valid Social Security Number (unless you are from the Republic of the Marshall Islands, the Federated States of Micronesia, or the Republic of Palau); 5) register with the Selective Service if required; 6) maintain satisfactory academic progress once in school; 7) certify that you are not in default on a federal student loan and do not owe money on a federal student grant; and 8) certify that you will use federal student aid only for educational purposes.

Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy for Federal Financial Aid Recipients

Satisfactory academic progress is defined as proceeding toward successful completion of degree requirements. The SJC Office of Financial Aid is required by federal regulation to determine whether a student is meeting the requirements. The official record of the SJC Registrar is reviewed to determine student compliance with this Policy. Satisfactory Academic Progress is reviewed and determined at the conclusion of each semester. Students enrolled in certificate programs will be evaluated at the mid-point of their program.

This Policy pertains only to applicants for federal assistance. A recipient of an SJC institutional scholarship, tuition remission, or an institutional grant must meet the eligibility requirements of the respective program. The New York Tuition Assistance Program (TAP), as well as any other state sponsored programs, has their own, specific progress policies. We encourage you to review the Office of Financial Aid website. If you have questions about the monitoring of satisfactory progress not addressed in this policy, please contact our office.

Satisfactory Academic Progress Requirements-

1. Not exceed a maximum number of hours to complete the degree program:
Undergraduate students must not exceed 192 credits.
Graduate students must not exceed 54 credits.
Students enrolled in certificate programs must not exceed 36 credits.
2. Maintain a cumulative Graduation/Retention Grade Point Average:
Undergraduate students must maintain a cumulative GPA of 2.0.
Graduate students must maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.0.
3. Successfully complete at least 75% of the total cumulative hours attempted. This includes all courses attempted at SJC as well as courses transferred into SJC that are applicable to a student's program. For example, a student who has attempted a cumulative total of 55 hours must have successfully completed at least 41 credit hours to meet the requirement ($55 \times .75 = 41.25$; round decimals down to whole numbers).

Courses/Grades Used in Determining Satisfactory Academic Progress:

All coursework attempted, including any dropped, repeated, reprieved or remedial courses or withdrawals recorded on the SJC Transcript at the time of the progress check are considered when determining if the student has exceeded the maximum number of hours for degree completion and has completed 75% of the total cumulative hours attempted.

The following grades indicate successful completion of a course: "A," "B," "C," "D," or "P."

The following grades indicate a course was not successfully completed: "F," "I," "AB," "WD," "WF," "WU," "FN," "NC," or a course for which a grade was not entered.

Audit courses are not counted in the total hours attempted for any semester or as successful completion of a course. Independent study, correspondence and extension courses may count toward successful completion of hours attempted if they are completed by the last day of the semester. For information about eligibility and payment of aid for these types of courses, please contact the Financial Aid Office.

Transfer coursework must be reflected on the SJC Transcript to be considered for purposes of financial aid eligibility

Failure to Maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress:

A student who exceeds the maximum number of hours allowed for degree completion will be suspended from future financial aid until the reason for the excessive hours can be adequately documented.

A student who either fails to achieve the required cumulative Graduation/Retention GPA, or to complete at least 75% of the total hours attempted, will be placed on financial aid probation for the following semester of enrollment at SJC. A student may receive financial aid while on probation. At the end of the probationary period, if a student is meeting the Satisfactory Academic Progress requirements, he/she will regain unconditional eligibility for federal financial aid programs. If a student has not met the requirements, he/she will have eligibility for federal financial aid suspended. Please see below.

Financial Aid Suspension:

A student denied assistance based on the Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy may submit a written appeal to the Financial Aid Appeals Committee. An appeal form is included in the suspension notification letter. The appeal and supporting documentation must be received in the SJC Financial Aid Office by the deadline reflected in the suspension notification letter. The appeal should speak in detail to mitigating or extenuating circumstances that affected the student's academic performance, i.e., severe physical injury or mental trauma.

A student suspended for exceeding the maximum hours allowed for degree completion should also have the academic advisor complete the "Remaining Hours Required for Degree Completion" form if extenuating circumstances require the student to exceed the maximum hours limit. The form is included in the suspension notification letter.

Action taken on a financial aid appeal is final and is transmitted to the student in writing by the Financial Aid Appeals Committee. Depending upon the timeliness of the appeal, it is possible for a student to have an appeal denied and also not be entitled to a refund of charges if the student chooses to withdraw from classes. A student who enrolls and attends class whose appeal is subsequently denied will be eligible for a refund of charges based solely on the refund policy in the SJC Catalog.

A student suspended for reasons other than exceeding the maximum number of hours for degree completion who does not appeal, or whose appeal is denied, may be reinstated on a probationary basis by meeting both of the following criteria:

1. Achieve the required cumulative Graduation/Retention GPA or the required Semester GPA (Undergraduate = 2.00; Graduate = 3.00); and,
2. Successfully complete 75% of the total cumulative hours attempted or 75% of the hours attempted for that semester.

A student may regain eligibility by attending SJC for the academic year without the benefit of federal financial aid and meeting the SAP eligibility criteria. A student may also regain eligibility by transferring work into SJC from an accredited institution. Transfer work must be reflected on the SJC transcript to be considered for purposes of federal financial aid eligibility.

Withdrawal From the College (Return of Title IV Funds)

Federal financial aid is awarded to a student under the assumption that the student will attend school for the entire period for which the aid is awarded. When a student withdraws from the college, he or she may no longer be eligible for the full amount of federal aid originally awarded. If a federal financial aid recipient withdraws after beginning attendance, and before the 60% point in the term, the amount of federal grant and/or loan assistance earned by the student must be determined. If the amount disbursed to the student is greater than the amount the student earned, unearned funds must be returned. If the amount disbursed to the student is less than the amount the student earned, and for which the student is otherwise eligible, the student may be entitled to a post-withdrawal disbursement.

Federal Pell Grant

Federal Pell Grants are awarded to students with financial need, who have not received their first Bachelor's degree. The federal government determines need and eligibility using the data submitted on the FAFSA. For the 2009-10 award year, the maximum Pell award is $5350. The maximum amount can change each year depending on program funding levels. The exact amount a student will qualify for depends on the Expected Family Contribution (EFC) calculated from data on the FAFSA, cost of attendance at a particular school, the student's enrollment status and a student's plans to attend school for a full academic year or less.

Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (FSEOG)

Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants are awarded to undergraduates with exceptional financial need. Awards at SJC range from $500 to $1,000 per year, and priority will be given to Pell eligible students with the lowest Expected Family Contributions.

Academic Competitiveness Grant (ACG)

An Academic Competitiveness Grant provides up to $750 for the first year of undergraduate study, and up to $1,300 for the second year of undergraduate study. In addition to receiving a Pell grant students must also have completed a rigorous secondary program of study to be eligible. First year students must have graduated from high school after January 1, 2006 and second year students must have graduated from high school after January 1, 2005. Second year students must have at least a 3.0 cumulative GPA. Additional information on this program can be found at www.studentaid.ed.gov.

National Science and Mathematics Access to Retain Talent Grant (SMART Grant)

A National SMART grant provides up to $4000 for the third and fourth years of undergraduate study. In addition to receiving a Pell grant students must be in the third or fourth year of undergraduate study, be pursuing a major in physical, life or computer sciences, mathematics, technology, engineering or a critical foreign language and have at least a 3.0 cumulative GPA. Additional information on this program can be found at www.studentaid.ed.gov.

Federal Work-Study Program

Federal Work-Study Program provides part-time employment for undergraduate students with financial need, allowing them to earn money to help cover educational expenses. Job placement is through the Office of Financial Aid and students receive a monthly paycheck for work performed.

Federal Perkins Loan

Federal Perkins Loans are a low interest (5%) loan for students with exceptional financial need. At SJC, Perkins Loans are available to full-time, Pell eligible undergraduate students. Awards are subject to availability.

Federal Stafford Loans

Federal Stafford Loans are awarded to undergraduate and graduate students who are enrolled at least half time in an approved program of study. Federal Stafford Loans are either Subsidized or Unsubsidized. Subsidized loans are awarded on the basis of financial need, and the government pays the interest on subsidized loans while a student is school, in a grace period, or in deferment. Unsubsidized loans are not based on financial need and a student is responsible for the interest from the time the loan is disbursed. A student can either pay the interest or allow it to accumulate and be capitalized. Capitalizing interest will increase the amount that a student must repay. Stafford Loans have annual and aggregate loan limits based on grade level, dependency status and level of study.

Federal Parent Loans for Undergraduate Students (PLUS Loan)

Parents may borrow a PLUS Loan for a dependent undergraduate student enrolled at least half time in an approved program of study. Parents must be credit approved to receive a PLUS Loan. The annual limit is the Cost of Attendance minus any other aid that a student is receiving.

New York State Financial Aid Programs

For additional information on any New York State Programs, including questions of eligibility, please contact New York State Higher Education Services Corporation (NYSHESC) at (888) NYS-HESC or visit their website at www.hesc.org.

Tuition Assistance Program (TAP)

Full-time students in an approved program of study who meet New York State residency requirements may be eligible for up to $5,000 per academic year. Effective for the 2007-08 academic year and thereafter, TAP is available to students on a part-time basis. To be eligible for Part-Time TAP, a student must have been a first time freshman in the 2006-07 academic year or thereafter, and must have earned 12 credits or more in each of two consecutive semesters. To be eligible for TAP students must also be a U.S. citizen or eligible non-citizen, be a legal resident of New York State, be in good academic standing, have at least a C average after receiving two payments, not be in default on a student loan guaranteed by NYSHESC and meet income eligibility requirements.

Aid for Part-Time Study (APTS)

Part-time students in an approved program of study who meet New York State residency requirements may be eligible for up to $2,000 per academic year. Awards cannot exceed tuition.

Additional Programs

In addition to TAP and APTS, NYSHESC administers a variety of additional programs. Some examples of other programs are:

- Flight 3407 Memorial Scholarship
- Flight 587 Memorial Scholarship
- New York Lottery Leaders of Tomorrow Scholarship
- NYS Scholarships for Academic Excellence
- Military Service Recognition Scholarship
- World Trade Center Memorial Scholarship

For information on any of the programs administered by NYSHESC, please call (888) NYS-HESC or visit www.hesc.org.

Satisfactory Academic Progress Requirements for New York State Aid Recipients

In order to receive TAP payments a student must be meeting the standards of academic progress set by the New York State Education Department, which consist of two components:

1. Satisfactory Academic Progress: A requirement that a student accumulates a specified number of credits and achieves a specified cumulative grade point average each term. Please refer to the chart below.
2. Pursuit of Program: A requirement that a student completes a certain percentage of credits attempted each term. The percentage, as specified in regulations, begins at 50% of the minimum full-time course load in each term of the first year an award is received, to 75% in each term of the second year an award is received, to 100% in each term of the third year an award is received and thereafter.

Note: Only students in five-year programs, approved pursuant to Section 145-2.7 of the Regulations, are eligible for more than four years of undergraduate awards.

Students must meet both the program pursuit requirements and the satisfactory academic progress requirements in each term of payment in order to continue to be eligible. In extraordinary circumstances, a student may be granted a waiver of the minimum requirements. Students are eligible for a waiver only once during their undergraduate career and once during their graduate career. For information about the process of filing a waiver, please contact the Office of the Registrar.

Individuals with Disabilities

Students who are medically diagnosed with a physical, developmental or emotional disability may be eligible for a grant that would help cover tuition, fees and the cost of books. Please contact the Office of Vocational and Educational Services for Individuals with Disabilities (VESID) for more information, or visit their website at www.vesid.nysed.gov.

St. Joseph's College Financial Aid Programs

School of Professional and Graduate Studies Grants

St. Joseph's College offers a limited number of partial-tuition grants to matriculated students. Grant amounts vary according to financial need and available funds. Award determination is made by the Office of Financial Aid. Priority will be given to students who adhere to recommended filing dates.

School of Professional and Graduate Studies Transfer Scholarships

St. Joseph's College offers a limited number of partial-tuition scholarships to matriculated transfer students entering the School of Professional and Graduate Studies. Certain conditions apply. Consult an admissions counselor for more information.

NYPD, FDNY, NYCDOC and NYCCO Personnel Grants

St. Joseph's College offers grants to personnel and civilian staff of the New York City Police Department, the Fire Department of the City of New York, New York City Department of Correction and New York City Court Officers. Consult an admissions counselor for more information.

Registered Professional Nurses Grant

St. Joseph's College offers a grant for registered professional nurses in the United States who are pursuing a bachelor's degree, and who do not receive full tuition reimbursement from their employer. Consult an admissions counselor for application procedures.

Alumni Grant

Entering students who are sons and daughters of SJC alumni are considered for this award. If funding permits, other relatives of alumni may be considered. The amount of this grant varies and is determined and awarded on a yearly basis. An application is required and must be submitted to the Director of Alumni Relations. A separate application, available at www.sjcny.edu, must be submitted each year by March 1. Alumni grants are determined by the Alumni Association Scholarship Committee.

Two in Family Grant

If two or more siblings of a family are enrolled as full-time undergraduate students at SJC, a $500 per year grant will be awarded to the eldest student. If twins or spouses are enrolled as full-time undergraduate students, they will each be awarded $250 per year. If a parent and a child are enrolled as full-time undergraduate students, the parent will be awarded the $500 grant.

St. Joseph's College is fully approved by the New York State Education Department as well as other agencies for college level education programs for veterans under federal and state laws. For more information on these programs, please visit the Department of Veterans Affairs website at www.va.gov.

Because this is a two-year catalogue, some information may be out of date. Students with questions concerning financial aid should contact the Office of Financial Aid at (718) 940-5700 for the Brooklyn campus and (631) 687-2600 for the Long Island Campus

ACADEMIC LIFE

DEGREE PROGRAMS

St. Joseph's College offers the following degree programs, which are registered with the New York State Education Department.

School of Professional and Graduate Studies

The College provides the following opportunities for adults with diversified professional and personal experiences to pursue college degree programs. These programs are administered by the School of Professional and Graduate Studies.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE in Business Administration with a major in Accounting. Students applying for the B.S. must satisfy the requirements of the core curriculum and major, and elect additional courses for a total of 128 credits, at least 60 of which must be in the liberal arts.

DUAL BACHELOR OF SCIENCE in Accounting and MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION in Accounting. This 152-credit program stresses both the study of graduate accounting topics and the development of managerial effectiveness. It satisfies the 2009 education requirements for C.P.A. licensure and is registered with the New York State Education Department, Office of the Professions.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE in Community Health and Human Services and also in Health Administration. Students applying for the B.S. in Community Health and Human Services or the B.S. in Health Administration must satisfy the requirements of the core curriculum and major, and elect additional courses for a total of 128 credits, at least 60 of which must be in the liberal arts.

DUAL BACHELOR OF SCIENCE in Health Administration and MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION in Health Care Management. This 152 credit accelerated curriculum fosters the application of theoretical knowledge to real-world health care issues.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE in Computer Information Systems. Students applying for the B.S. must satisfy the requirements of the core curriculum and major, and elect additional courses for a total of 128 credits, at least 60 of which must be in the liberal arts.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE in Criminal Justice. Students applying for the B.S. must satisfy the requirements of the core curriculum and major, and elect additional courses for a total of 128 credits, at least 60 of which must be in the liberal arts.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE in Marketing. Students applying for the B.S. must satisfy the requirements of the core curriculum and major, and elect additional courses for a total of 128 credits, at least 60 of which must be in the liberal arts.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE in Nursing. Accredited by the National League for Nursing Accrediting Commission, the program is designed specifically for registered nurses. The curriculum consists of 128 credits which includes lower-division course requirements and upper-division courses. At least 60 credits must be in the liberal arts.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE in Organizational Management. Students applying for the B.S. must satisfy the requirements of the core curriculum and major, and elect additional courses for a total of 128 credits, at least 60 of which must be in the liberal arts. Also available in the online format—see Bachelor of Science in Organizational Management Online Program (OMOP).

DUAL BACHELOR OF SCIENCE in Organizational Management and MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION. This 152 credit accelerated curriculum fosters the application of theoretical knowledge to promote organizational effectiveness.

DUAL BACHELOR OF SCIENCE in Organizational Management and MASTER OF SCIENCE in Management with a concentration in Human Resources Management. This 152 credit accelerated curriculum fosters the application of theoretical knowledge in support of developing organization's human resources.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE in General Studies. This program provides an opportunity for students with non-traditional academic backgrounds as well as those who have an Associate degree to pursue a flexible course of study. Of the 128 credits required for the degree, at least 60 must be in the liberal arts.

Personalized advisement is the key to this approach. With the assistance and guidance of a trained advisor, students design a program around their strengths, experiences, and aspirations, drawing from the various courses of the College.

For all undergraduate degrees, a cumulative index of 2.0 is required, as well as an index of 2.0 in the major.

EXECUTIVE MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION. This 36-credit program allows students with substantial work experience to apply graduate-level management and financial theory to workplace issues and problems.

MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION in Accounting. This 36-credit program stresses both the study of graduate accounting topics and the development of managerial effectiveness.

MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION in Health Care Management. This 36-credit curriculum is designed to provide health care professionals with a comprehensive management education that focuses on current issues in the health field.

MASTER OF SCIENCE in Management. This 36 credit curriculum consists of a 24 credit core in Management plus a 12 credit concentration in Organizational Management, Health Care Management, or Human Resources Management.

MASTER OF SCIENCE in Human Services Management and Leadership. This 30 credit program provides professionals with a comprehensive management education that focuses on significant human service issues.

MASTER OF SCIENCE with a major in Nursing. This is a part-time, cohort-based program that can be completed in seven semesters of study. The program offers a choice of two concentrations: Clinical Nurse Specialist in Adult Health or Nursing Education. All students will also be required to successfully complete a comprehensive examination with a grade of B or higher to graduate. The program is registered with the New York State Education Department, Office of the Professions.

For all graduate degrees, a cumulative index of 3.0 is required.

CERTIFICATE PROGRAMS

St. Joseph's College, through its School of Professional and Graduate Studies, offers the following undergraduate certificate programs, which are registered with New York State Education Department: Alcoholism and Addictions Counseling (28 credits), Care Management (12 credits), Counseling (12 credits), Criminology/Criminal Justice (24 credits), Gerontology (12 credits), Health Care Management (15 credits), Health Instruction (12 credits), Home Care Administration (18 credits), Hospice (15 credits), Human Resources (15 credits), Information Technology Applications (12 credits), Leadership and Supervision (12 credits), Management (27 credits), Marketing, Advertising, and Public Relations (12 credits), and Training and Staff Development (12 credits).

For these certificates, a cumulative index of 2.0 is required.

The following graduate certificates, which are registered with New York State Education Department, are offered by the Office of Graduate Management Studies: Health Care Management (15 credits) and Human Resources Management (15 credits).

For these certificates, a cumulative index of 3.0 is required.

WEEKEND COLLEGE TRIMESTER PROGRAM

Offered through the School of Professional and Graduate Studies on the Long Island Campus, accelerated Weekend College is intended for mature individuals with career and family responsibilities who wish to obtain a bachelor's degree or certificate but find it difficult to attend day or evening classes.

With classes offered approximately every other weekend in the trimester format, the accelerated Weekend College aims to provide adult students with an opportunity for personal and career development. Student achievement is fostered in an environment that encourages self-directed learning supported by a structure of relationships and on-going advisement.

Applicants wishing to pursue a degree or certificate program in the accelerated Weekend College must satisfy the admission requirements for the degree or certificate program, as well as possess the maturity and background to undertake this challenging academic format. Students may supplement their trimester credit with credit by examination, prior experiential learning assessment credit, video course credit, or by enrolling in additional evening courses. The following programs are offered: B.S. degrees in Community Health and Human Services, Health Administration and Organizational Management as well as Certificates in Counseling, Gerontology, Health Care Management, Home Care Administration, Human Resources, Information Technology Applications, Leadership and Supervision, Management, and Training and Staff Development.

School of Arts and Sciences

BACHELOR OF ARTS in Biology, Chemistry (only in Brooklyn), Child Study, Criminal Justice, English, History, Human Relations, Mathematics, Psychology, Social Science, Spanish, and Speech. Students applying for the B.A. must satisfy the requirements of the core curriculum and major, and elect additional courses for a total of 128 credits, at least 90 of which must be in the liberal arts. Those who wish to teach on the elementary or secondary level will also follow the programs approved for teacher certification.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE in Biology, Chemistry (only in Brooklyn), Mathematics, Computer Science and Computer Information Systems. Students applying for the B.S. must satisfy the requirements of the core curriculum and major, and elect additional courses for a total of 128 credits, at least 60 of which must be in the liberal arts. Those who wish to teach on the secondary level will also follow the programs approved for teacher certification.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE in Business Administration. Students applying for the B.S. must satisfy the requirements of the core curriculum and major, and elect additional courses for a total of 128 credits, at least 60 of which must be in the liberal arts.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE in Marketing. Students applying for the B.S. must satisfy the requirements of the core curriculum and major, and elect additional courses for a total of 128 credits, at least 60 of which must be in the liberal arts.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE in Public Accountancy. This program leads to a double major in Accounting and Business Administration and prepares for the C.P.A. exams. Students applying for the B.S. must satisfy the requirements of the core curriculum and major, and elect additional courses for a total of 150 credits, at least 60 of which must be in the liberal arts.

DUAL BACHELOR OF SCIENCE in Accounting and MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION in Accounting. This 152-credit program stresses both the study of graduate accounting topics and the development of managerial effectiveness. It satisfies the 2009 education requirements for C.P.A. licensure and is registered with the New York State Education Department, Office of the Professions

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE in Recreation. Students applying for the B.S. in Recreation must satisfy the requirements of the core curriculum and major, and elect additional courses for a total of 128 credits, at least 60 of which must be in the liberal arts

For all bachelor's degrees, a cumulative index of 2.0 is required, as well as an index of 2.0 in the major (higher, if so indicated by the major department.)

MASTER OF ARTS in Childhood or Adolescent Special Education with Annotation in Severe and Multiple Disabilities. This program is designed for those who possess initial certification in Childhood Education or Adolescence Education in a content field. The program provides the student with a core curriculum (12 credits) and courses that link Special Education to the New York State Learning Standards (24 credits). This program leads to certification in Childhood Special Education 1-6 or Adolescence Special Education in a content field 7-12, as well as an Annotation in Severe or Multiple Disabilities (ages birth–21).

MASTER OF ARTS in Infant/Toddler Early Childhood Special Education. The program is designed for those interested in obtaining a Master of Arts degree with certification in Early Childhood Special Education. The graduate program consists of 36 credits. Students must complete the 36 credits, which includes one semester or summer session in a full time fieldwork placement, and a Master's thesis.

MASTER OF ARTS in Literacy and Cognition. The program addresses the challenges of teachers in the area of Literacy and Cognition. The 36-credit program consists of 12 credits of core courses and 24 credits of courses that link literacy instruction to the New York State Learning Standards on the level of birth through grade six. This part-time program leads to New York State Certification in Literacy-Birth to Grade 6.

For all Graduate degrees and certificates, a cumulative index of 3.0 (B) is required.

ACADEMIC ADVISEMENT

An integral part of providing a quality educational experience to adults is an academic advisement system that can be responsive to their individual needs. Toward that end the School requires that all students meet with an advisor to plan an academic program. Prior to this meeting, students receive a counseling worksheet that will guide them and their advisors in the preparation of their programs. Students should retain this worksheet and bring it to subsequent advisement meetings. It is recommended that students consult with an advisor once a semester.

COURSELOAD. Full-time students may carry sixteen credits per term. Students beyond freshman year may take up to eighteen credits with the approval of an advisor. For more than six courses or eighteen credits in one semester, the permission of the Dean is required. (See Tuition Policy.)

Students taking the Portfolio and Career Development Seminar may have their courseload restricted. (See Prior Experiential Learning Assessment.)

PASS/NO CREDIT OPTION. To encourage exploration and experimentation in curricular areas, the faculty has provided that juniors and seniors may take one course per semester or during intersession or summer session on an index-free basis (i.e., the grade is not computed in the index). Students may not take more than a total of four courses Pass/No Credit.

Courses required either by the core curriculum or by the student's major department or area of concentration may not be elected on this basis. Students may have the first three weeks of the term in which to indicate that they wish to take this option (or in the case of a Summer Session or Intersession Course, before the fourth class). No changes, either to Pass/No Credit or back to letter grade, may be made after that time. Grades assigned are P or NC (Pass or No Credit).

Students should be cautioned that taking courses on a Pass/No Credit basis may make them ineligible for honors. (See Honors.)

REPEATED COURSES. A student who receives an unsatisfactory grade in a course specifically required for the degree, for the major, or for a certificate program may request departmental approval to repeat the course. Although the grade of F is the only one for which credit is not given, departments may require a grade of C or better for satisfactory completion of certain departmental requirements. In such cases, the Chairperson may permit the student to repeat a course in order to demonstrate mastery of the subject. Both the original grade and the repeated grade will appear on the transcript. Credit will be given only once for the course, and only the most recent grade will be calculated in the index.

AUDITING COURSES. Matriculated students may audit courses with the consent of the instructor and the permission of the Dean. Non-matriculated students pay the regular tuition for this privilege. No credit is given for audited courses, and no records are kept.

ACADEMIC POLICIES

Academic Integrity

In common with all colleges and universities engaged in the search for knowledge, St. Joseph's College is committed to high standards of academic honesty. Moreover, as a college whose motto is "Esse non videri: To be, not to seem," St. Joseph's has a long-standing tradition of considering integrity as a primary value.

The College expects students to observe academic integrity in all aspects of their academic life, including the conduct of their examinations, assignments, and research. All members of the college community share the responsibility for creating a climate of academic integrity, based on fairness to others and respect for oneself.

Violations of academic integrity are treated very seriously. Policies and procedures for violations of academic honesty are explained in detail in the Student Policy Handbook.

Attendance

Students are expected to attend regularly and punctually all classes in which they are registered. Because active participation is considered vital to the educational process, class work constitutes 60–75% of the final grade in the course. Students who must be absent for an extended period of time are urged, therefore, to contact the individual instructor or the academic advisor concerning classwork, assignments, and announced quizzes.

At the same time, the faculty recognizes that on occasion students cannot be present. Because faculty members have confidence in the maturity of the student body and recognize the personal growth which comes through responsible freedom, the faculty has vested all members of the student body with personal responsibility for their attendance.

The faculty wish to emphasize, however, that students are equally responsible with them for creating a climate of inquiry and sharing. True education results only from active involvement in the learning process.

Students will not be permitted to register for a class after the second class session. (For a six-week or trimester course, students will not be permitted to register after the first class session.) Students may not register for nor enter writing courses after the first class session without the authorization of the Writing Coordinator.

If students have registered in advance but have missed the first two class sessions (or have missed the first class session of a six-week or trimester course), they will be encouraged to withdraw from the class. The reason for this is the compressed nature of the School of Professional and Graduate Studies scheduling configuration and the difficulty encountered by students attempting to make up missed work.

Students should understand that if they insist on staying in the class under these circumstances, they accept the responsibility of their decision. They should also understand that it will be difficult for them to make up the missed work, that the instructor is under no obligation to help them make up the missed material, and that their final grades may be affected both from the standpoint of material missed and class participation opportunities forfeited.

Change of Major

Students who wish to change their majors must submit this intent in writing to the Registrar. These requests are reviewed by the Department Chairperson or advisor. Students must then meet with an advisor to plan a new program. Change of major should be effected before the period of programming for the following term.

Where it appears that a student's request to change majors is being initiated in order to graduate at an earlier date and where it appears that the student intends to complete another major at St. Joseph's College, the Dean—in consultation with the appropriate department chairpersons—reserves the right to deny the request.

Double Major

A double major is the fulfillment of the requirements in two majors concurrently. To earn a degree with double majors, the student must fulfill all of the requirements of the degree program(s) of which the majors are a part. Only one degree will be awarded, but a notation recognizing the completion of the second major will be posted on the student's permanent record. This option does not pertain between certain majors—consult the Registrar's Office. Applications for a double major may be obtained in the Registrar's Office.

Change of Schedule

A fee of $20 is charged for each change of schedule form starting the day each class begins. If a course is cancelled, the students affected will be notified; there is no fee for this change of schedule.

Late Registration

A fee of $25 is charged for late registration payable on the first class session. Students are not permitted to register for a course in a fourteen-week session after the second class meeting (i.e., after two meetings of three hours each), nor register for a six-week session after the first class session has met (i.e., after one session of seven and one-half hours).

Withdrawing from Courses

A student who wishes to withdraw from a course in which he or she is registered, should obtain the official form from the Registrar, and follow the procedure outlined. Ordinarily, withdrawal may take place up to the midpoint of the term or session; thereafter, it may take place only for a most unusual reason and with the approval of the Dean. A fee of $20 for each form is charged. Students are advised to investigate the implications of withdrawing from courses on their eligibility for financial aid.

A student who does not withdraw officially from a course continues on the class register and must satisfy the requirements of the course. A student who ceases to attend a course before the midpoint of the semester will be withdrawn at the end of the semester and will receive a grade of WU. A student who ceases to attend a course after the midpoint will receive a grade of FN (Failure for non-attendance). A student who is failing a course and wishes to withdraw after the midpoint will receive a grade of WF (Withdrew failing).

Full-time students who receive permission to withdraw from a single course are not entitled to a refund unless the withdrawal involves extra credits. Once the session has begun, flat-rate students who change their programs to less than 12 credits will continue to be responsible for the flat-rate tuition charge (as opposed to the per credit rate). The time of the withdrawal is considered when calculating refunds. Tuition liability is based on the date the change of program form is received by the Registrar.

Courses to be Taken at St. Joseph's College

Students are required to take a minimum of 32 credit hours of coursework with St. Joseph's College. The following courses will not be offered at the College's extension sites: ENG 103 Writing for Effective Communication; CHS 403 Community Health/Human Services and the Liberal Arts; GS/HA 404 Administration and the Liberal Arts; BUS 471 Research Seminar in Organizational Management; CHS 490 Research Seminar in Community Health and Human Services; HA 490 Research Seminar in Health Administration. BUS/CHA 495 Academic Writing and Research; BUS/CHS/HA 498 Capstone Research in Organizational Management, Capstone Research in Community Health/Human Services, Capstone Research in Health Administration. The College reserves the right to restrict other course offerings to the Main or Branch Campuses.

Courses at Other Colleges

Students who have reason to take courses for credit at other colleges should file the appropriate form in the Registrar's office. The decision to allow students to take such courses is made by the Dean in consultation with the Department Chairperson or advisor. The College reserves the right to refuse permission or to limit the number of such courses. Students who transfer to St. Joseph's as Juniors are usually expected to complete their course and credit requirements at the College. Upper level students may not take courses at junior or community colleges.

When the courses have been completed, students are responsible for having an official transcript sent to the Registrar. Although the grades are not entered on the transcript nor included in the cumulative index, no credit will be allowed for a course with a grade below C-. (For Transfer Student Policy, see Admission and Finances.)

Academic Standing

St. Joseph's College accepts for matriculation only those students whom the College believes capable of completing the requirements for the degree. Since students may experience difficulty at some point, however, they should consult, early enough in the term for practical assistance, the class instructor and/or the Chairperson of the Department, the Director of Counseling, their Academic Advisors, or any other faculty members. Students are advised to investigate the implications of academic standing on their eligibility for financial aid.

Satisfactory Progress is ordinarily represented by an index of 2.0. Students with indexes below 2.0 are evaluated by the Academic Development Committee. Basing their judgment upon the students' tested potential, previous academic background, and calculated estimation of improvement, the Committee may permit students to continue in the College in good standing, under the guidance of academic advisors, for a stated time, thus giving them a chance to succeed. However, this does not automatically mean that such a student is eligible for financial aid. Such students should consult the Financial Aid section of this catalogue, the Registrar, and the Director of Financial Aid to determine their continued eligibility for financial aid.

At the end of each semester the Registrar reviews the record of every student and refers to the Committee on Academic Development those who have failed to maintain an index of 2.0 and/or who have failed to complete successfully the minimum number of credits for their enrollment status (FT or PT). The faculty members, with the Dean, and the Registrar as consultants, endeavor to determine the causes of the academic difficulty and recommend adjustments in program for the following term. The faculty members of the Committee serve thereafter as special advisors to those students who have been referred to them.

Full-time students who, at the end of a semester, have not achieved an index of 2.0 or higher, and/or who have failed to complete successfully the minimum number of credits for their enrollment status, may not take more than 12 credits the following semester. Part-time students may not take more than 6 credits the following semester without special permission of the Dean. Although the Committee on Academic Development reviews each case individually, students who continue to achieve below the required index of 2.0 and/or who have failed to complete successfully the minimum number of credits for their enrollment status will be advised to withdraw. Students who have been asked to withdraw may represent to the Dean, in person or in writing, any relevant circumstances.

Reinstatement

Students asked to withdraw because of unsatisfactory progress may apply to be readmitted to the College. The procedure requires a written request, assessment of previous academic record and of potential, evidence of increased motivation, possible retesting, and approval of the Chairperson of the major department and the Dean.

Students who have been reinstated are responsible for finding out the conditions, if any, which must be satisfied in order to obtain financial aid.

Examinations

Final examinations are held at the end of each semester. Exceptions to this procedure require the approval of the Dean.

Genuine emergency such as illness is the only excuse for absence from an examination. Documentation of the emergency may be required. A student who is absent from a final examination must call the Registrar on the day of the exam, giving the reason for the absence. Within one week, the student must write to the Dean, stating the reason for the absence and requesting a make-up exam. A fee of $25 dollars is required for each make-up examination. By faculty regulation, a special examination may be given no sooner than one month from the date of the originally scheduled examination. The dates for such examinations are listed on the academic calendar; the hours are specified by the Registrar. Students must take the make-up exam at the time specified. A student who is absent from a make-up exam will receive a grade of zero for the exam.

Incompletes

If a faculty member believes that a student, for a serious reason, should be allowed additional time in which to complete the requirements of a course, the faculty member may file a form with the Registrar to this effect. It is the responsibility of the student for whom such exception has been made to see that the work is completed so that the faculty member may give the final grade to the Registrar NOT LATER THAN January 31 for the Fall semester, July 1 for the Spring semester, and September 1 for the Summer session. All coursework must be completed prior to the day of graduation.

Grades and Reports

Transcripts of courses and grades are posted at the end of each term. The final grade in each course is based on the class mark, weighted as 60-75% of the total, and the final exam mark, weighted as 25-40%. Grades are interpreted as follows:

Quality	Grade	Percentage	Quality Points
Excellent	{ A	93.0 - 100.00	4.0
	{ A-	90.0 - 92.9	3.7

Withdrawal from the College

Students who plan to withdraw from the College should consult an advisor and then submit written notification of withdrawal. All financial obligations to the College must be fully paid before students may withdraw or graduate in good standing. In addition, students who have received a scholarship or loan must have an exit interview with the Financial Aid Officer. (See Financial Aid). It is important for financial aid purposes that the last date of attendance be officially recorded. The Administration of the College may require the withdrawal of students whose academic record or conduct is judged unsatisfactory.

Students who have been inactive for two semesters or more should consider themselves withdrawn. If they wish to later re-enroll at the College, they will be required to be readmitted and will be subject to all the requirements and procedures in force upon their subsequent readmission. See General Limitations on Prior Learning Credit.

St. Joseph's College is under no obligation to readmit students who have withdrawn from the College or who have been asked to withdraw.

HONORS

Dean's Honor List

At the beginning of each term, the Dean publishes the names of those full-time students (12 credits or more) who in the previous academic semester attained an index of 3.65 or higher. Part-time students who attain an index of 3.65 after 15 credits are eligible for the Dean's Honor List and must file an application with the Registrar by August 30 for the Summer session, February 15 for the Fall semester, or June 30 for the Spring semester. Graduates need not apply in their last semester since this index is computed automatically for graduates. This list is posted on a special bulletin board in the main hall of the College, outside the Dean's Office.

Senior Honors

Students who achieve a cumulative index of 3.8 for the last 30 credits taken at St. Joseph's College will receive Senior Honors.

Distinguished Graduate Award

The Distinguished Graduate Award is given to students who achieve a cumulative index of 3.85 for the last 45 credits taken at the College. Persons receiving the Distinguished Graduate Award will not also receive Senior Honors.

HONOR SOCIETIES

Delta Gamma Sigma

Membership in the School of Professional and Graduate Studies honor society, Delta Gamma Sigma, is based on academic performance as well as on significant volunteer service to the College, to the community and/or professional organizations. The name of the honor society, Delta Gamma Sigma, is derived from the first letters for the Greek words Diakonia (service), Gnosis (knowledge), and Sophia (wisdom). Candidates must be individuals who represent the ideals of St. Joseph's College. Students pursuing a bachelor's degree within The School of Professional and Graduate Studies who have completed thirty credits or more at St. Joseph's College with a cumulative index of 3.85 or higher are eligible for election to membership in Delta Gamma Sigma. The School of Professional and Graduate Studies Office will send academically eligible students the necessary application form. Eligible students must then return the application to a committee appointed by the Dean. The application will include evidence of significant volunteer service and an essay which reflects on this service. No more than fifteen percent of the currently enrolled Professional and Graduate Studies students with thirty credits or more may be elected to the society. Election to Delta Gamma Sigma will be permanently recorded on the transcript at the end of the semester in which the qualifying index was achieved. Recognition at Commencement will be dependent upon students' maintaining a cumulative index commensurate with Senior Honors. Students who do not achieve initial eligibility until their last semester at the College may not, due to time constraints, have their election recognized at Commencement (although their election will subsequently be recorded on the transcript).

In computing the index for each of the above honor categories, the grades from full semesters are used, which may necessitate including more credit than the required minimum.

Nursing Honor Society

Membership in the St. Joseph's College Nursing Honor Society is based on superior scholastic achievement, evidence of professional leadership potential and/or marked achievement in the field of Nursing. Candidates must have a grade point average of at least 3.0, have completed at least half of the Nursing Baccalaureate curriculum, and must rank in the top 35% of the graduating class. Eligibility for membership is determined by an eligibility committee.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS

Combined BA/BS+MBA Program

This accelerated program offered at St. Joseph's College enables students to earn an undergraduate degree and a Master of Business Administration in five years. The program is open to all, but is designed to articulate with the Mathematics Actuary Track, Computer Science or the Computer Information Systems major. In fall of junior year students must complete the application process for the MBA program. For details about this program, students should consult the Director of Graduate Management Studies.

Combined BA/BS+MS in Computer Science Program

This special program joins St. Joseph's College with Polytechnic Institute of New York University in a new educational collaboration known as Knowledge Workers Educational Alliance (KWEA). The program is designed to produce highly qualified personnel, who in five years, will complete the Bachelor's degree from St. Joseph's College and the Master of Science degree in Computer Science from Polytechnic Institute of New York University. Students in any undergraduate major may enter the program and must complete a sequence of courses at St. Joseph's with specified grades. For details, see the Mathematics Department offerings.

Student's Right To Privacy and Access to Records

Public Law 93-380, usually titled "Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act," or more often known simply as the Buckley Amendment, prohibits release of any material in a student's file without the written consent of the college student. This law also affords students the right to review the contents of their official academic folders, except for those documents excluded by Law 93-380, as amended.

Students who wish to inspect their folders are required to complete the REQUEST FOR DISCLOSURE OF STUDENT FILE INFORMATION. These forms are available in the Registrar's Office and in the Office of the Academic Dean. Students who wish to challenge the contents of their folders as inaccurate, misleading, or inappropriate, should follow the informal and formal proceedings outlined in the current Student Handbook.

STUDENT COMPLAINTS

A student who has a complaint about an academic matter should follow the procedures set forth in the Student Policy Handbook under Student Grievance Procedures in Academic Matters. No adverse action will be taken against any student who files a complaint.

BIAS RELATED CRIMES

In compliance with Section 6436 of the Education Law, St. Joseph's College adopts the following policies and procedures:

All actions against persons or property, which may be considered bias crimes are unequivocally prohibited at all times in any college owned or operated property, or at any college sponsored activities.

Bias crimes may be defined as any form of unlawful harassment or other harmful behavior such as assault which is based on an individual's sex, race, national origin, disability, veteran status, or on any individual's status in any group or class protected by applicable federal, state, or local law.

The penalties for committing such crimes will include reporting the incident to the appropriate authorities so that an independent investigation can be conducted. The College will also undertake an investigation of the incident, in keeping with the guidelines published in the Student Handbooks. The procedures for dealing with bias related crimes will be the same as those outlined for grievances relating to allegations of sexual harassment and all other forms of unlawful harassment and discrimination.

The office of Counseling will provide support services for victims of bias related crime, and will make appropriate referrals to outside agencies.

Bias related crime on college campuses occur when a lack of familiarity with people who are different, or who belong to groups that others are uncomfortable with, evolves into a hostile environment. In a college setting many young people come together and encounter people of different cultures and backgrounds for the first time. Because the students bring biases and attitudes from their own past experiences, the possibility of bias related crimes must be recognized and every effort must be made to provide opportunities for open and honest dialogue and sharing.

The College provides information about security procedures through a brochure that is distributed to all incoming students and new employees, as well as frequent updates in campus newsletters and publications.

CAMPUS SAFETY STATISTICS

The Advisory Committee on Campus Safety will provide upon request all campus crime statistics as reported to the United States Department of Education. The US Department of Education web site address for campus crime statistics is:

<http://www.ed.gov/admins/lead/safety/campus.html>

The College has designated campus contacts who are authorized to provide campus crime statistics.

Long Island Contact Person:

Paul Casale, Director of Security, (631) 687-2692

Brooklyn Contact Person:

Michael McGrann, Director of Security, (718) 940-5741

The College shall provide a hard copy mailed to the individual within 10 days of the request and that information will include all of the statistics that the campus is required to ascertain under Title 20 of the U.S. Code Section 1092 (f).

SERVICES FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

The Executive Director of Counseling and Career Development acts as the Coordinator of Services for Students with Disabilities. The Director provides information and counseling to qualified students and works with students and faculty to ensure that appropriate academic adjustments are provided. Students should consult the Student Policy Handbook for further information.

It is the responsibility of all students to inform the College of any change in their mailing address. Failure to do so relieves the College of any liability in the event that important correspondence is not received by the students.

Dual B.S./M.B.A. in Accounting Curriculum (152 Credits)

The DUAL BS/MBA in Accounting is designed to provide individuals with the necessary education for careers in public or private accounting.

The requirements for licensure in public accountancy in the State of New York have recently changed. As of August 1, 2009 students applying for licensure must satisfactorily complete a 150-hour licensure qualifying program registered with the State Education Department.

At St. Joseph's College, this requirement can be met in one of two ways:

- Complete the 128-credit B.S. in Business Administration with a major in Accounting and then complete the 36-credit M.B.A. in Accounting or
- Complete the 152-credit B.S./M.B.A. in Accounting

Students will be eligible for admission to the DUAL B.S./M.B.A. Program after completing ACC 213-Intermediate Accounting II and 90 credits. In addition, students will be required to have an overall GPA, and business and accounting GPA of 2.8. Transfer students are eligible to apply for admission to the B.S./M.B.A. Program after completing 30 credits at the College and meeting the GPA requirements. Undergraduate prerequisite courses must be completed prior to graduate coursework to which they relate.

Consult an advisor for additional prerequisite and admissions information.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CHS 409 PSYCHOLOGICAL FACTORS IN HEALTH AND DISEASE*

This course will demonstrate how the effects of attitudes, emotions, and relationships are related to physical health and well-being. Personality styles, stress, social support, humor, and spirituality will be discussed as factors influencing the immune system. Principles and techniques to strengthen empowerment and a sense of personal control will be offered.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CHS 411 ALCOHOLISM*

This course examines theories surrounding the etiology of alcoholism, including biological, psychological, sociological, and cultural factors. The impact of alcoholism on the individual, family, and community is discussed. Methods of prevention, treatment, and rehabilitation are also explored.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CHS 412 ADDICTIONS AND DEPENDENCIES*

The process of dependency is examined not only as it applies to substances, including alcohol, but also as it relates to pathological gambling, compulsive over-eating, and co-dependencies. Effects of various substances on the body will be discussed. The etiology of addictive and dependent behavior as well as the impact this abuse has on the individual, family, and community are studied. Methods of prevention, treatment, and rehabilitation are explored.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CHS 413 NUTRITION IN COMMUNITY HEALTH

This course introduces students to needs assessments of nutrition as an integral part of overall health needs in diverse communities. Strategies are formulated to help students devise plans for working with human service agencies in dealing with issues of nutrition. Eating patterns and sources of calories and nutrients will be examined in the following populations: the elderly, pregnant women, children, and adolescents. Special attention will be given to the impact of poverty on nutrition and to the increasing incidence of eating disorders and obesity. Contemporary issues will be addressed.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CHS 415 COMMUNITY HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES*

This introductory course explores the interrelationship between the community, its health needs, and the response of the health and human service delivery system to meet these needs. A history of community health and human service is covered, as are the social, cultural, and economic forces that give rise to specific health problems, attitudes, and behaviors, including the response of various community health and human service systems to prevent disease and promote health.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CHS 419 ALCOHOLISM AND ADDICTIONS IN THE FAMILY AND SOCIETY*

This course centers on alcoholism and addictions as these relate to the family, its individual members, and society. A special focus is the child's development in a dysfunctional family and the later outcome known as adult children of alcoholism. Co-dependency, family violence, therapeutic interventions, special populations, HIV/AIDS, and societal implications are explored.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CHS 420 HEALTH EDUCATION

Health education programs which promote optimal health through education in community agencies are explored. Hours to be arranged. Typically no evenings or weekends. 3 credits.

CHS 470 PRACTICUM IN ALCOHOLISM & ADDICTIONS COUNSELING I

A supervised internship in the field of alcoholism and addictions counseling, this practicum is made available to students on an individual basis. Approval required. Placements are arranged by students and instructor.

Approval required to take CHS 470, CHS 471, and CHS 472 concurrently.

Prerequisites: Required courses for the Certificate in Alcoholism and Addictions Counseling

Hours to be arranged, 3 credits.

CHS 471 PRACTICUM IN ALCOHOLISM & ADDICTIONS COUNSELING II

A supervised internship in the field of alcoholism and addictions counseling, this practicum is made available to students on an individual basis. Approval required. Placements are arranged by students and instructor. Students who earn below a B in CHS 470 may not register for CHS 471.

Approval required to take CHS 470, CHS 471, and CHS 472 concurrently.

Prerequisites: Required courses for the Certificate in Alcoholism and Addictions Counseling

Hours to be arranged, 3 credits.

CHS 472 PRACTICUM IN ALCOHOLISM & ADDICTIONS COUNSELING III

A supervised internship in the field of alcoholism and addictions counseling, this practicum is made available to students on an individual basis. Approval required. Placements are arranged by students and instructor. Students who earn below a B in CHS 471 may not register for CHS 472.

Approval required to take CHS 470, CHS 471, and CHS 472 concurrently.

Prerequisites: Required courses for the Certificate in Alcoholism and Addictions Counseling

Hours to be arranged, 4 credits.

CHA 484 LEGAL ASPECTS OF HEALTH CARE

A review of the basic legal concepts affecting the health care delivery system. Topics discussed include aspects of malpractice in health care, practitioner and institutional liability, legal rights of the consumer, administrative law, medical records, and the role of regulatory agencies.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CHA 489 COMPREHENSIVE HEALTH PLANNING

This introductory course examines the methods and practices of long-range and strategic health planning, focusing on such factors as need, supply, and demand-at the institutional, community, and regional level. Also covered is the role of government in health care planning. Facility and health program planning are considered.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CHS 490 RESEARCH SEMINAR IN COMMUNITY HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES*

A capstone research course for students pursuing the Community Health and Human Services major, it is designed to permit an investigation into an individualized area of interest. Students are expected to employ research methodologies in the preparation of a paper appropriate to the major.

Prerequisites: CHS 415, ENG 103, MAT 151

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits. (This course will be discontinued after Spring 2011.)

CHA/BUS 495 ACADEMIC WRITING AND RESEARCH*

This course will focus on those skills required for scholarly writing in the fields of Health Administration, Human Services, and Management. In addition to reviewing documentation and citation styles, accessing peer-reviewed journals using electronic databases, and knowing how to avoid plagiarism, this course will guide students through the style and structure of professional research writing. First, students will become familiar with the scholarly style of journal articles and will develop the ability to extract relevant information from those articles. Then, students will practice skills of narrowing the subject field, creating an annotated bibliography, writing a literature review, and creating a research question, all in preparation for their Capstone Research Seminar.

Prerequisite: ENG 103

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CHA 496 HEALTH CARE FINANCE AND ECONOMICS

The course covers analysis of the "financial health" of health care institutions (globally and facility-specific), financial statements, capital and operating budget techniques, DRG's and RUG's, and inventory management. The role of the government in regulation and planning is explored, as are changes in reimbursement methodology and payment systems, including HMO's and PPO's. In addition, the course will provide an overview of the economics of the health care system including supply and demand concepts as they relate to the provision of health care services, cost behavior, cost and production functions, and comparative health systems.

Duplicative of HA 497 Financial Management in Health Care Institutions

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CHS 498 CAPSTONE RESEARCH IN COMMUNITY HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

(HA/BUS 498)

The second part of a two-part capstone research course for students in the majors of Community Health and Human Services, Health Administration, and Organizational Management, is designed to teach students about the research methodologies that can be applied to the investigation of a research study of an individualized area of interest. Students will select an appropriate research methodology and design and will apply it to the research topic selected during the earlier course, CHA/BUS 495. The final project will be an academic paper reporting on an original research topic investigated by the student.

Prerequisites: MAT 151 and CHA/BUS 495

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CHA 498 GLOBAL HEALTH SYSTEMS*

(Formerly International Health Systems)

This course focuses on contemporary health issues in their political, cultural, and socioeconomic context. The role of the World Health Organization is addressed.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CHA 499 FIELD STUDY IN GLOBAL HEALTH SYSTEMS*

(Formerly Field Study in International Health Systems)

A planned study of the health care delivery services in a developed/developing country. Special attention is given to contemporary political, cultural, and socioeconomic aspects of the country's health services.

Hours to be arranged, 3 credits. Not offered regularly.

Bachelor of Science in Computer Information Systems

David Seppala-Holtzman, D.Phil., Chairperson

William McAllister, M.S., Associate Chairperson

The Bachelor of Science degree in Computer Information Systems is designed to prepare students to apply information technology within organizational contexts. Specifically, the program will focus on the development of technology infrastructures and systems and the use of these to acquire, deploy and manage information.

Students pursuing the Bachelor of Science in Computer Information Systems within the School of Professional and Graduate Studies would be expected to have post-secondary education and training and have acquired, through experience, the skills and knowledge appropriate to the degree.

The Department reserves the right to require an additional English writing course(s) at any point in a student's program if deemed appropriate based on the student's writing level.

Computer Course Offerings

The following courses will be offered during either the 2009–2010 or the 2010–2011 academic year – including Summer, Fall, Intersession, and/or Spring semesters/sessions/trimesters on both the Brooklyn and Long Island Campuses, unless otherwise noted. Not all of these courses will be available at night or on weekends on both campuses. Consult the Arts and Sciences Catalogue and the semestral schedule of courses for more specific information including the Long Island Campus Weekend College Trimester Program. Courses marked with an asterisk are applicable to the liberal arts requirements of the curriculum.

COM 115 EXPLORING THE INTERNET

Discover how the Internet and the World Wide Web can be used to locate, access and retrieve information from international library resources and databases. This course includes historical background, network etiquette and ethics, as well as the skills for effectively and responsibly interacting with the Internet. Topics such as ftp, telnet, e-mail, search engines, URLs, and the hypertext markup language (HTML) will be explored in a laboratory environment. The concepts will be applied to the design of a web page.

1 hour a week, 1 semester, 1 credit.

COM 140 MICROCOMPUTER APPLICATIONS I

This course is designed as an introductory course to provide the background necessary for the effective use of microcomputers. The emphasis is on the major applications of microcomputers: word processing, relational databases, spreadsheets, and the use of the Internet. The course includes “hands-on” experience with common applications software. No previous computer related experience necessary.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

COM 141 MICROCOMPUTER APPLICATIONS II

This course is intended for students from all disciplines. It will develop intermediate and advanced word processing, spreadsheet and database techniques, including macros, report generation, database queries, importing and exporting files, address-books, labels, graphics, and table manipulation. It will also include expanded Internet and Worldwide Web topics.

Prerequisite: COM 140 or equivalent, or departmental approval

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

COM 150 INTRODUCTION TO COMPUTER PROGRAMMING*

This course offers a basic introduction to computer hardware and software. Elementary programming techniques will be taught using, for example, Visual BASIC. Emphasis will be on problem solving using the computer.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

COM 152 COMPUTER PROGRAMMING*

An introduction to the concepts underlying computer science and programming such as: abstraction, analysis and modularity. Emphasis is on algorithm development, and the use of structured design techniques in solving problems. Students will develop programs using the syntax and semantics of a higher-level language such as C++ or Java. Searching, sorting, recursive algorithms and the concepts of objects will be introduced. (Corresponds to ACM CS1)

Prerequisite: COM 150 or departmental approval

3 hours a week, plus lab, 1 semester, 3 credits.

COM 200 COMPUTER SCIENCE: AN OVERVIEW*

For students from all disciplines. Topics include: computer organization, information representation in digital computers; data abstraction and data structures such as trees, lists and stacks; algorithm development and analysis; programming languages; hardware and software systems; information processing and database concepts; computer technology and society.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

COM 205 MULTIMEDIA APPLICATIONS

In this course students will be introduced to multimedia principles and technologies. Topics will include effectively representing, processing and retrieving multimedia data such as text, graphics, sound, music, images and video. Students will use the Internet, design and edit an Internet home page, and create a multimedia presentation. Various multimedia tools and techniques will be explored.

Prerequisite: COM 141 or equivalent

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits. Offered when there is sufficient student demand.

COM 210 ALGORITHMS AND DATA STRUCTURES

This course explores specific classes of problems and their solutions. Fundamental questions concerning computational complexity, data storage and access, data encapsulation using objects, space/time bounds, optimal algorithms and data structures including lists, queues, and trees are addressed. Algorithms for important classes of problems such as searching, sorting, and pattern-matching will be designed, implemented and tested in a laboratory environment. (Corresponds to ACM CS2).

Prerequisite: COM 152 and MAT 203. Each with minimum of C-.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

COM 230 SOFTWARE ENGINEERING AND METHODOLOGY

This course teaches the techniques for managing and producing large maintainable software systems. Topics include cost estimating, requirement specification, design methodologies, implementation and integration, verification and documentation techniques. Students will utilize current automated software engineering tools to apply the learned concepts and will develop a cost estimate, project management plan, functional specification and detailed design specification of a selected software system.

Prerequisite: COM 210 or departmental approval

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

COM 249 COMPUTER ORGANIZATION AND ASSEMBLY LANGUAGE

This course explores the evolution and physical structure of modern computers, from microcomputers to mainframes; their integrated circuits, components and organization. The concept of a multilayer virtual machine will be explored and programmed using machine language, microcode, operating system interrupts and assembly language. Advanced concepts such as RISC machines, pipelining, and parallel computing will be studied. Students will utilize these principles to analyse the design of a current microprocessor.

Prerequisite: COM 152

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

COM 252 ADVANCED C++

This course will briefly review the basic C++ constructs (program template, I/O, math/assignment and control of flow statements) and then focus on advanced C++ constructs, most of which are not included in Java. Type definitions, reference parameters, pointers, templates, overloading operators, multiple inheritance, and the standard template library will be among the topics discussed in detail. In addition, the procedural paradigm will be reviewed. Students will apply the learned concepts by completing several programming projects.

Prerequisite: COM 152 or equivalent

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits. Not offered in Brooklyn. Offered in Long Island when there is sufficient student demand.

COM 260 COMPUTER AND INFORMATION SECURITY

This course combines the theoretical and practical aspects of securing a computer system. The goal is the design and analysis of secure systems, which incorporate confidentiality, integrity and availability. Topics include threats, risk management, access controls, cryptography and encryption, secure code (especially operating systems, databases, programs, email), network and Internet security including firewalls and VPNs. The legal, ethical and privacy issues of information security are emphasized.

Prerequisite: COM 200 or departmental approval.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

COM 288 BUSINESS SYSTEMS AND DESIGN (BUS 288)

The design and development of information systems for a business environment. Topics will include analysis of information flow, design of business systems, specifications, equipment selection, and file organization. Detailed steps for each phase of the design will be related to business applications on a full scale computer system.

Prerequisite: Any introductory computer course

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

COM 310 OPERATING SYSTEMS

The emphasis of this course is on the efficient allocation and use of computer resources especially those involving process and memory management, job scheduling, access to hardware and software resources, security and reliability. Examples will be drawn from standard operating systems (e.g. Windows NT, MS-DOS, UNIX). Questions relating to communications (timesharing, networking, concurrency, distributed systems, synchronization, and deadlocks) will be discussed.

Prerequisite: COM 210

3 hours a week plus lab, 1 semester, 3 credits.

COM 320 PROGRAMMING LANGUAGES

This course presents an overview of the syntax, semantics, and pragmatics of several higher level languages and the distinction between static and dynamic typing. Examples will be drawn from various classes of languages including procedural, declarative, functional, concurrent, visual, and object-oriented. The major applications (eg. artificial intelligence, data processing, scientific/engineering, etc.) will be explored for each type of language. Formal languages and automata, including theories of parsing and language translation will be considered.

Prerequisite: COM 210 or departmental approval

3 hours a week plus lab, 1 semester, 3 credits. Not offered in Brooklyn. Offered in Long Island when there is sufficient student demand.

COM 330 COMPUTER GRAPHICS

This course presents an introduction to computer graphics hardware and software. Topics include: vector and raster graphics, viewports and windows, 2-dimensional and three dimensional modeling, viewpoints, rotations and translation transformations, animation and algorithms for line drawings, clipping and hidden line/surface removal. Students will implement these concepts to develop graphics package using a high level programming language.

Prerequisite: COM 210 or departmental approval

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits. Not offered in Brooklyn.

COM 340 HUMAN COMPUTER COMMUNICATION

This course explores the design and implementation of the user interface in the light of current ergonomics research.

Prerequisite: department approval

1 hour a week, 1 semester, 1 credit. Not offered in Brooklyn. Offered in Long Island when there is sufficient student demand.

COM 360 COMPUTER COMMUNICATIONS AND NETWORKING

The Open System Interconnection (OSI) model provides the theoretical basis for the study of computer communications. Topics include the physical transmission of data, communication protocols and architecture, network addressing, services and applications such as file transfer (ftp), telnet, and e-mail. Topologies, design and implementation issues involved in LANs, WANs and internetworking will be explored.

Prerequisite: COM 210 with a minimum grade of C-
3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

COM 370 ADVANCED COMPUTER PROGRAMMING

This course will present advanced programming concepts such as inheritance, interfaces, multitasking, interactive network programming, event handling, GUI generation and stream I/O and the use of these concepts in building programs of significant size. Applications, applets and servlets will be investigated. Students will apply the learned concepts by completing several programming projects of significant size.

Prerequisites: COM 152 and COM 210 or their equivalent
3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

COM 380 DATABASE SYSTEMS

An introduction to the principal functions of a Database Management System (DBMS), physical data organization, relational query languages, and issues of data security and consistency.

Prerequisite: COM 152 or departmental approval
3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

COM 390 ADVANCED APPLICATION PROGRAMMING AND DATABASE SYSTEMS

This course covers information systems design and implementation with a focus on database management systems. Students will apply design strategies, system analysis and project management principles along with advanced programming skills to create a full-scale database application. Students will utilize Project Management Software and embedded SQL in a high-level programming language such as Java, VB.net.

Prerequisites: COM 288 and COM 380
3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

COM 470 DIRECTED STUDIES

Supervised study of the computer science literature, with the findings documented in a paper of significant depth or implemented in a challenging documented project. The approval of the professor offering the course is required to enroll in this course.

1 semester, 1 or 2 credits. Not offered in Brooklyn. Offered in Long Island when there is sufficient demand.

COM 490 CURRENT TOPICS IN COMPUTING

Seminar and directed readings on current topics (such as Neural Networks, Fractals and Image transmission, Distributed Databases, Computer Vision and Robotics, etc.).

Prerequisite: departmental approval

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits. Not offered in Brooklyn. Offered in Long Island when there is sufficient student demand.

COM 498 INTERNSHIP IN COMPUTER INFORMATION SYSTEMS

The internship provides a carefully supervised experience in the use or management of a Computer Information System. A minimum of 100 hours will be spent in the academic, business or industrial community.

Prerequisite: departmental approval

2 or 3 credits.

COM 499 INTERNSHIP IN COMPUTER SCIENCE

The internship in Mathematics/Computer Science is designed to provide the student with a carefully supervised "hands-on" experience in a particular area (eg. graphics, database management, systems analysis and design, software development, etc.). A minimum of 100 hours will be spent under the supervision of a member of the business-industrial community, acting in conjunction with a designated faculty member.

Prerequisite: Junior or Senior Mathematics/Computer Science major with departmental permission

2-3 credits, repeatable. Not offered in Brooklyn.

Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice

Barbara Morrell, Ph.D., Coordinator

Joseph E. Pascarella, Ph.D., Coordinator

The B.S. degree in Criminal Justice is designed to provide students with a fundamental understanding of the nature of crime and criminal law in society as well as the workings of police, courts, and corrections—the essential components of the criminal justice system. Students will be equipped with the necessary skills and insights to understand the complex issues surrounding crime and the criminal population.

Students pursuing the B.S. in Criminal Justice within the School of Professional and Graduate Studies would be expected to have post-secondary education and training and have acquired, through experience, the skills and knowledge appropriate to the degree.

The Department reserves the right to require an additional English writing course(s) at any point in a student's program if deemed appropriate based on the student's writing level.

Additional tracks in Juvenile Justice and Mental Health are offered through the School of Arts and Sciences. Please consult the Arts and Sciences catalogues for additional information.

For course descriptions not listed below, please see Additional Course Offerings section of this catalogue.

CJ 158 CRIMINAL JUSTICE ADMINISTRATION

An overview of the history, structure and function of the police, prosecutor, judicial and correctional organizations, and their interrelatedness. Through readings and an examination of Supreme Court cases, policy issues such as sufficient evidence, use of discretion and legal concerns will be discussed.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CJ 257 JUVENILE JUSTICE (SOC 257)

A study of the history and current philosophy and practice of the juvenile justice system, and the social, economic and political forces which have brought it to its present state. Students will examine the current levels and trends of juvenile delinquency and violence along with juvenile justice responses to them. Current issues such as transfer of juveniles to adult court, New York State PINS law, and Restorative Justice will be included.

Prerequisite: SOC 100 or SOC 136

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CJ 266 LAW ENFORCEMENT AND POLICING

An examination of the evolution of public policing as an institution of social control, law enforcement policy and procedure, the organizational and administrative aspects of law enforcement, the role that police play in addressing crime as a social problem, the formation of police values and subculture, police discretion, and an understanding of the critical issues and challenges facing crime control today.

Prerequisite: CJ 158

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CJ 277 CRIMINAL PROCEDURE

An examination of significant Supreme Court decisions, which define the parameters of acceptable police conduct and individual rights in their interaction with the police and criminal courts. An exploration of the unique issues relating to New York State—specific criminal procedure laws, understanding of crime, law and procedure, coverage of the Bill of Rights and the Constitutional limits of law, which is essential in dealing with the criminal justice population.

Prerequisite: CJ 158

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CJ 278 CRIMINAL LAW

This course offers students an exposure to the basic principles, theories, and doctrine of criminal law in the United States. Some New York law will also be studied. It will include both historical and contemporary judicial thinking and legal reasoning. The course will consider how criminal law is actually administered in the real world and the impact of politics, race, class, and gender on these procedures. Controversial issues will be explored.

Prerequisite: CJ 158

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits. Spring 2010

CJ 324 RESEARCH METHODS IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE*

A fundamental understanding of research design and data analysis in criminology and Criminal Justice. The course will examine quantitative and qualitative research methods (experimental design, quasi-experimental design, surveys, field research, secondary data analysis), types of data and measurement, probability, and sampling techniques.

Prerequisite: CJ 158

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CJ 342 INTERNSHIP IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE

The internship is designed to give Criminal Justice majors, in their senior year, an experience working with a professional in a criminal justice agency. Students are placed in agencies congruent with their interests. Students are expected to work a minimum of 120 hours during the semester. Additional requirements include a journal of activities and completion of a major paper. Weekly seminar meetings will be held.

Prerequisite: CJ 158

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CJ 370 SPECIAL TOPICS IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE

This course will examine specialized issues in the criminal justice field, which are not covered in depth in the existing course offerings. It will allow professors in one of the multi disciplines within Criminal Justice to teach their area of expertise to students and facilitate interaction between faculty and students.

Prerequisite: CJ 158

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CJ 400 CAPSTONE SEMINAR IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE*

The senior capstone course is based on readings and discussion of major works in the field of crime and the administration of justice. Original works are discussed in the context of the history of ideas, political ideologies, and contemporary developments. Seminar paper required.

Prerequisite: CJ 158

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

Bachelor of Science in Health Administration

Lauren G. Pete, J.D., Ph.D., Chairperson

John Sardelis, Dr.P.H., Associate Chairperson

The Bachelor of Science degree in Health Administration promotes the career and educational advancement of health care professionals, improves the health care delivery system, and meets the needs of the individuals and communities which that system serves.

This major fosters the development of knowledge skills, intellectual skills, and personal value systems. The program provides students with the opportunity to explore and understand diverse ideas and cultures as they relate to the provision of health care services.

In addition to having met the general admission requirements of the School, students typically have postsecondary education and training and have acquired, through experience, the skills and knowledge appropriate to the degree. Exceptions to this are made with the approval of the Dean.

A minimum of 21 credits with an HA or CHA identifier must be taken at St. Joseph's College (MAT 151 may be applied toward this requirement).

The Department reserves the right to require an additional English writing course(s) at any point in a student's program if deemed appropriate based on the student's writing level.

Dual Bachelor of Science in Health Administration/ Master of Business Administration in Health Care Management

Dual-degree candidates must meet the general undergraduate and graduate admissions requirements of the School of Professional and Graduate Studies. Most candidates typically have post-secondary education and training and will have acquired, through experience, the skills and knowledge appropriate to the degree.

Undergraduates are eligible for admission to the M.B.A. in Health Care Management program after completing 90 credits. 21 of which must be completed at St. Joseph's College. Applicants are required to complete (as part of the 90 credits) the following courses with a grade of C or better:

CHA 430	Health Care Delivery System
CHA 496	Health Care Finance and Economics
COM 140	Microcomputer Applications I or
	COM 141 Microcomputer Applications II
ENG 103	Writing for Effective Communication
HA 481	Health Care Management
MAT 151	Fundamentals of Statistics

Equivalent courses from other accredited institutions will be considered. These courses include all prerequisite courses required for the graduate degree, as well as other courses deemed necessary by the department to provide students with a diversified foundation in health care management.

Applicants are required to have a 3.3 overall GPA and submit at least one letter of recommendation from a faculty member in his/her major, attesting to the student's readiness for graduate study. This recommendation must contain the approval of the department or associate chair.

M.B.A. applicants typically are required to have work experience involving supervision, program development, specialized training, considerable responsibility and/or independent judgment. Applicants for the B.S./M.B.A. in Health Care Management can satisfy this requirement by completing a 3-credit internship during their junior or senior year. If an applicant's experiential qualifications fall short of the aforementioned criteria, the GMAT will be required.

The following courses will be offered during either the 2009–2010 or the 2010–2011 academic year—including Summer, Fall, Intersession, and/or Spring semesters/sessions/trimesters on both the Brooklyn and Long Island Campuses, unless otherwise noted. Consult the semestral schedule of courses for more specific information, including the Long Island Campus Weekend College Trimester Program. Courses marked with an asterisk are applicable to the liberal arts requirements of the curriculum.

HA 200 FUNDAMENTALS OF FINANCIAL ACCOUNTING (ACC 200)

This course is an introduction to the field of accounting and to the development and use of financial accounting information in the business world. This course emphasizes accounting techniques and procedures, accounting theory, and interpretation and use of accounting information. Topics include financial statements preparation, merchandising accounting, systems and controls, financial assets, plant assets, corporate accounting and financial statement analysis.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

HA 230 HUMAN RESOURCES MANAGEMENT (BUS 230)

A review of the theory of the effective management of human resources. The students examine employer-employee relations in such areas as equal employment opportunity practices, training and evaluation methods, compensation and reward or motivational programs, legal and regulatory requirements and the role of collective bargaining. The course utilizes the case method supplemented with an assigned text.

(Suggested antecedent course: BUS 100 or HA 481)

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

HA 404 ADMINISTRATION AND THE LIBERAL ARTS* (GS 404)

This course, designed for management and health administration majors, focuses on the relationship between the liberal arts and the issues related to administration. With perspectives provided by the social sciences and the arts and humanities, this course explores: the rise of the management dynamic; the growth of technology and industrial power; administrative styles; the effect of corporate and organizational life on the individual and society; the conflict between power and responsibility.

(Suggested antecedent course: HA 481)

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CHA 408 EPIDEMIOLOGY*

An introduction to the science of epidemiology dealing with the incidence, distribution, and control of disease in the population. Concentration is directed toward health promotion and disease prevention at institutional and community levels. The role of public health and other agencies is also discussed.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CHA 423 PRINCIPLES OF TRAINING AND STAFF DEVELOPMENT (GS 423)

This course provides a survey of the methods used in training and career development of employees in the service of individual and organizational effectiveness. Central to the course is its focus on planning, designing, and implementing an overall training and development effort for an organization.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CHA 424 TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT TECHNIQUES (GS 424)

This course focuses on conducting a specific training and development program, including developing a needs analysis, creating program objectives, selecting an appropriate teaching methodology, identifying instructional aids, and developing an evaluation instrument.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CHA 426 HEALTH TOPICS

This course provides students with the opportunity to participate in a focused exploration of a current topic pertaining to the health field. Students may not earn more than 5 credits by taking CHA 426, or GS 427. Three one-credit options are not equivalent to a three-credit course, and cannot be applied to the requirement of major electives.

1 hour a week, 1 semester, 1 credit.

CHA 430 HEALTH CARE DELIVERY SYSTEM

An in-depth study of the organization of the U.S. health care delivery system. Special attention is given to practices and problems affecting providers and consumers of health care. Recent changes in the financing mechanisms and their impact on distribution of services are discussed.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CHA 432 AMBULATORY CARE ADMINISTRATION

This course focuses on the delivery of health services on an outpatient basis, including the administration of other health services, including physician practice management techniques provided in the ambulatory setting. Governmental regulations, organizational considerations, staffing patterns, quality issues, and reimbursement are examined.

(Suggested antecedent course: HA 481 or CHS 415)

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CHA 433 MANAGED CARE

An overview of the evolution of managed care and current trends, including systems terminology, public policy, and market performance issues. (Students who have taken the one credit course CHA 426 Health Topics: Managed Care cannot take the 3 credit course.)

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CHA 435 CONTINUOUS QUALITY IMPROVEMENT

The course will focus on the shift in health care to CQI, risk management, and client satisfaction. Emphasis will be placed on compliance with and accreditation by regulatory agencies. It will also examine the different strategies and evaluation techniques that can feasibly result in increased productivity and performance in the delivery of health care services from the development of CQI and TQM.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CHA 437 HOME CARE ADMINISTRATION

This course focuses on the operation and administration of the many types of home care providers. The evaluation and growth of home care is discussed. Also covered are such topics as: government regulations, financing, staffing, continuing education needs, and marketing.

(Suggested antecedent course: CHA 430)

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CHA 438 HOSPICE CONCEPTS

This course explores the history and principles of the hospice movement, particularly within the context of New York State Regulations. Topics for study include administration/finance, the interdisciplinary team, the family as a unit of care, pain/symptom management, home/in-patient care, and bereavement care.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CHA 439 PRACTICUM IN THE HOSPICE FIELD

A supervised field experience in a hospice setting, this course is made available on an individual basis. Approval required. Placements are arranged by students and instructor.

Prerequisites: Required and elective courses for the Certificate in Hospice.

Hours to be arranged. Typically no evenings or weekends. 3 credits.

CHA 456 PROGRAMS AND RESOURCES IN AGING

This course examines government and private programs and resources in aging, at national, state, and local levels. Specific topics include income maintenance, public entitlements, housing options, crime prevention, and care management. Community programs presented include nutritional services, adult day care, senior centers and in-home services. In addition to addressing demographic, political and fiscal realities, this course will explore future trends and advocacy.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CHA 459 PRACTICUM IN GERONTOLOGY

A supervised field experience in gerontology, this course is made available to students on an individual basis. Approval required. Placements in the community, suitable to the student's needs, are arranged by the instructor in consultation with the student.

Prerequisites: Required and elective courses for the Certificate in Gerontology.

Hours to be arranged. Typically no evenings or weekends. 3 credits.

HA 466 INTERNSHIP IN HEALTH ADMINISTRATION (Formerly Practicum in the Health Field)

A supervised internship in the health area, this course is made available to students on an individual basis. Approval required. Placements are arranged by students and instructor.

Hours to be arranged. Typically no evenings or weekends. 2–6 credits maximum.

CHA 468 PRACTICUM IN TRAINING AND STAFF DEVELOPMENT (GS 468)

(Formerly Practicum in Health Staff Development)

A supervised internship in training and staff development is made available to students on an individual basis. Approval required. Placements are arranged by students and instructor.

Prerequisites: Required courses for the Certificate in Training and Staff Development.

Hours to be arranged. Typically no evenings or weekends. 3 credits.

HA 481 HEALTH CARE MANAGEMENT

An overview course dealing with health care management. Included in the course are such topics as effective management, supervision, organizational structures, decision-making, personnel and staffing, performance appraisal, finance, budgets, fiscal operations, facilities maintenance, and services distribution and control. State codes and accreditation standards are reviewed.

(Not to be taken by students who have taken BUS 100.)

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CHA 484 LEGAL ASPECTS OF HEALTH CARE

A review of the basic legal concepts affecting the health care delivery system. Topics discussed include aspects of malpractice in health care, practitioner and institutional liability, legal rights of the consumer, administrative law, medical records, and the role of regulatory agencies.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

HA 486 LONG TERM HEALTH CARE ADMINISTRATION

This course deals with the application of administrative theory to long term care facilities. Facilities are classified, and services of each are defined. Planning, construction, financial management, codes and regulations, Medicaid/Medicare, and an in-depth examination of personnel and health care services are covered.

(Suggested antecedent course: HA 481)

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CHA 489 COMPREHENSIVE HEALTH PLANNING

This introductory course examines the methods and practices of long-range and strategic health planning, focusing on such factors as need, supply, and demand—at the institutional, community, and regional level. Also covered is the role of government in health care planning. Facility and health program planning are considered.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

HA 490 RESEARCH SEMINAR IN HEALTH ADMINISTRATION*

A capstone research course for students pursuing the Health Administration major, it is designed to permit students to do an investigation into an area of their interest. Students are expected to employ research methodologies in the preparation of a paper appropriate to the major.

Prerequisites: HA 481, ENG 103, MAT 151

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits. (This course will be discontinued after Spring 2011.)

HA 492 MEDICAL TERMINOLOGY

This course familiarizes students with everyday anatomy and physiology terminology used in medical areas such as physician's offices, hospitals, clinics, insurance and pharmaceutical firms. Students will be instructed on how to derive the meaning of medical words by learning to easily separate word components, as well as to identify all major body parts by their correct language name. The course provides essential background knowledge for successful ICD-9-CM coding and other areas such as CPT coding and billing.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits. Offered when there is sufficient student demand.

HA 493 COMPUTER APPLICATIONS IN HEALTH ADMINISTRATION

This course assists students in understanding the development, design, evaluation, selection and utilization of computer application in health care. Students will be instructed on how to understand and utilize state of the art computer based health care applications and technologies, including E-health and -health care technologies. Emphasis will also be placed on how computer applications and E-health technologies can support high quality patient care and improve management decisions in health care institutions.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits. Offered when there is sufficient student demand.

HA 494 BILLING AND CODING

This course will provide an in-depth understanding of medical billing and coding. Billing topics will include daily transaction entries, completing medical submissions, billing claim follow-up, itemized statements, and billing management. In addition, students will learn the basics of CPT and ICD-9-CM coding necessary for billing medical services and procedures. Students will also be introduced to computerized billing/coding software available in the field. Classes are conducted in a computer laboratory.

Prerequisite: HA 492

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits. Offered when there is sufficient student demand.

CHA/BUS 495 ACADEMIC WRITING AND RESEARCH*

This course will focus on those skills required for scholarly writing in the fields of Health Administration, Human Services, and Management. In addition to reviewing documentation and citation styles, accessing peer-reviewed journals using electronic databases, and knowing how to avoid plagiarism, this course will guide students through the style and structure of professional research writing. First, students will become familiar with the scholarly style of journal articles and will develop the ability to extract relevant information from those articles. Then, students will practice skills of narrowing the subject field, creating an annotated bibliography, writing a literature review, and creating a research question, all in preparation for their Capstone Research Seminar.

Prerequisite: ENG 103

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CHA 496 HEALTH CARE FINANCE AND ECONOMICS

The course covers analysis of the "financial health" of health care institutions (globally and facility-specific), financial statements, capital and operating budget techniques, DRG's and RUG's, and inventory management. The role of government in regulation and planning is explored, as are changes in reimbursement methodology and payment systems, including HMO's and PPO's. In addition, the course will provide an overview of the economics of the health care system including supply and demand concepts as they relate to the provision of health care services, cost behavior, cost and production functions, and comparative health systems.

Duplicative of HA 497 Financial Management in Health Care Institutions

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

HA 498 CAPSTONE RESEARCH IN HEALTH ADMINISTRATION*
(CHS/BUS 498)

The second part of a two-part capstone research course for students in the majors of Community Health and Human Services, Health Administration, and Organizational Management, is designed to teach students about the research methodologies that can be applied to the investigation of a research study of an individualized area of interest. Students will select an appropriate research methodology and design and will apply it to the research topic selected during the earlier course, CHA/BUS 495. The final project will be an academic paper reporting on an original research topic investigated by the student.

Prerequisites: MAT 151 and CHA/BUS 495

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CHA 498 GLOBAL HEALTH SYSTEMS*
(Formerly International Health Systems)

This course focuses on contemporary health issues in their political, cultural, and socioeconomic context. The role of the World Health Organization is addressed.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

CHA 499 FIELD STUDY IN GLOBAL HEALTH SYSTEMS*
(Formerly Field Study in International Health Systems)

A planned study of the health care delivery services in a developed/developing country. Special attention is given to contemporary political, cultural, and socioeconomic aspects of the country's health services.

Hours to be arranged, 3 credits. Not offered regularly.

Bachelor of Science with a Major in Nursing

Barbara L. Sands, Ph.D., R.N., Director

The Department of Nursing offers an upper-division baccalaureate program designed exclusively for registered nurses. The program is accredited by the National League for Nursing Accrediting Commission. The curriculum is planned to maximize the strengths the registered nurse brings to the baccalaureate program. The program focuses upon the utilization of nursing theory; the promotion, restoration and maintenance of health for clients; the development of critical thinking and decision-making skills; and the development of leadership skills appropriate to beginning professional practice. The research process as it relates to nursing is taught and utilized throughout the program. Clinical experiences are provided at a variety of health care settings under the direction of the Nursing faculty.

The purposes of the program are to:

1. Provide the graduate with breadth of knowledge and values from both general and professional education.
2. Prepare the graduate for professional practice in traditional and unstructured health care settings.
3. Provide a foundation for graduate education in nursing.
4. Provide the knowledge base and experiences that will facilitate resocialization from technical to professional nursing practice.

Admission Process

Candidates for admission to the Nursing program must submit:

1. A Nursing program application.
2. Transcripts of lower-division coursework. If student copies of transcripts are submitted initially, official transcripts must be on file within the first 18 credits of coursework at St. Joseph's College.
3. Two letters of reference from employing agency or School of Nursing attesting to the candidate's clinical competency and potential for professional growth.
4. Proof of licensure as a Registered Professional Nurse in New York State.

Admission Requirements

Candidates for admission to the Nursing program must have:

1. Graduated from an Associate Degree Nursing Program or a Hospital Diploma Program accredited by the National League for Nursing Accrediting Commission. Graduates of programs not accredited by the NLNAC may be eligible for conditional admission to the nursing program if they meet all other admission requirements. Specific requirements apply to those admitted on a conditional basis.

2. A current license in New York State as a Registered Professional Nurse or eligibility to sit for the NCLEX-RN licensing exam. Students must have a current New York State RN license to enroll in NU 350.
3. Completion of lower-division course requirements. Candidates are eligible to apply for admission after completing 24 credits of lower division course requirements at a regionally accredited community or senior college. CLEP challenge exams are available in selected science and liberal arts courses.
4. A satisfactory cumulative grade point average in lower-division course work. All candidates with a grade point average of 2.5 on a 4 point scale will be reviewed for admission. Preference will be given to those with a 3.0 or above grade point average.
5. Satisfactory scores on the NLN Nursing Acceleration Challenge Exam (ACE) II RN-BSN Tests required for graduates of Hospital Diploma Programs and students admitted to the program on a conditional basis. These tests must be taken no later than the second semester after admission to the program.

Nursing Course Offerings

The following courses will be offered in either the Summer, Fall, or Spring semester/session during the 2009-2010, 2010-2011 academic years on the Brooklyn and Long Island Campuses.

NU 300 THEORETICAL BASES IN NURSING

The focus of this course is the study of the conceptual framework and theories which provide the bases for professional nursing practice. The historical evolution of the theoretical foundation of nursing practice will be discussed, as well as the functions and merits of theory development to nursing practice, education and research. Selected nursing theories and concepts will be explored with an emphasis on the application of these to the nursing process. A case study approach will be used to provide students the opportunity to apply learning to practice situations.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

NU 310 PROFESSIONAL NURSING PRACTICE ROLES

The student engages in a study of the historical perspectives in the development of professional practice roles. Role theory, role socialization and role differentiation are examined as related to organizational structure and goals. The diversity of practice roles, changing roles, and expanded roles are explored with an emphasis on professional accountability, legal and ethical implications and advocacy.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

NU 320 HOLISTIC NURSING (Elective)

This course is designed to provide an introduction to holistic nursing and an overview of selected healing modalities such as therapeutic touch, relaxation and guided imagery. Discussions, demonstrations and/or experiential sessions are utilized to facilitate an understanding of these modalities. Emphasis is placed on theory-based practice. The implications of holistic nursing in practice and research are examined.

Prerequisites: NU 300, NU 310

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits. Offered when there is sufficient student demand.

NU 330 NURSING PRACTICE AND THE INTEGRATION OF GENETICS (Elective)

This course will explore the impact of the Human Genome Project and expanding genetic knowledge base on the clinical practice of nursing. Students will gain a basic understanding of the science of genetics as it relates to clinical aspects of nursing and health care. Genetic concepts related to human heredity, genetic conditions, and treatment approaches will be explored. Emphasis will be placed on the integration of genetic knowledge into nursing practice. Ethical, legal, social and cultural aspects of genetic advances in health care will be explored from a nursing perspective.

Co or Prerequisite: NU 310

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits. Offered when there is sufficient student demand.

NU 350 PROFESSIONAL NURSING WITH INDIVIDUALS

This course focuses upon the health appraisal of clients including select physical assessment skills. Emphasis is placed on health promotion and the total assessment of the client including factors affecting health status, health history, client education and the application of the nursing process. The integration of Roy's theory and the nursing process, communication and interpersonal relationship skills are emphasized.

Prerequisites: NU 300, BIO 331

Co or Prerequisite: NU 310

4 hours lecture/college lab per week, 4 hours clinical per week for two weeks, 4 credits.

NU 400 PROFESSIONAL NURSING WITH FAMILIES

This course includes a study of the concept of a family, the family environment as related to and influenced by health and illness, and the family as a system. Relevant theories are explored in relation to nursing practice with families focusing upon health promotion, maintenance and restoration. Public policy issues that affect family health care are explored.

Prerequisites: NU 300, NU 310

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

NU 410 PROFESSIONAL NURSING WITH COMMUNITIES

This course focuses upon the application of theories to promoting, maintaining, and restoring the health of communities. Emphasis is placed on the utilization of the nursing process in the health assessment of families and communities. Health promotion, health education, coordination and continuity of care are emphasized as are the roles of the professional nurse in community practice. The epidemiological process is stressed in surveying current major health issues. Public policy issues relating to health care are explored.

Prerequisites: NU 350, PSY 150, NU 400

3 hours lecture per week, 6 hours clinical per week, 1 semester, 6 credits.

NU 420 NURSING RESEARCH

This course focuses upon the critical evaluation of nursing research and the implications for nursing practice. Concepts basic to the research process, approaches to and methods of research are explored. Emphasis is placed on ethical considerations and the role of the nurse as a knowledgeable consumer of research.

Prerequisites: NU 300, MAT 151, GS 402

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits. (Offered Fall–Patchogue; Spring–Brooklyn)

NU 430 NURSING LEADERSHIP

This course includes a study of theories of leadership, organizational behavior, and planned change. Emphasis is placed on decision making. Nursing leadership in traditional and unstructured health care settings is explored. The student examines values and ethical issues, as well as socio-economic and public policy issues affecting nursing and health care delivery.

Prerequisites: NU 350, PSY 150

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

NU 440 BUDGETING CONCEPTS FOR NURSE MANAGERS (Elective)

The focus of this course is to improve the budgeting skills of nurse managers or potential nurse managers. It explores the budgeting process, types of budgets, cost factors and forecasting. Emphasis is placed on the role of the nurse manager in the preparation of a personnel budget for a patient care area.

Co or Prerequisite: NU 430

1 hour a week, 1 semester, 1 credit. Offered when there is sufficient student demand.

NU 450 PROFESSIONAL NURSING PRACTICUM

This course continues the study of theories and practice models that guide nursing practice with groups, families, and communities. Emphasis is placed on the use of leadership skills, strategies for initiating and facilitating change, and the application of research to nursing practice. The practicum is designed to facilitate the learner's self assessment and self directed pursuit of professional nursing knowledge in an area of interest.

Prerequisite: NU 350

Co or Prerequisite: NU 430

3 hours seminar per week, 6 hours clinical per week, 1 semester, 6 credits.

Students under the direction and guidance of faculty develop a learning contract for each clinical nursing course. The learning contracts are designed in accord with the student's academic and professional background and the objectives of the course. The use of the learning contract provides for student self-direction and participation in the selection of their learning experiences. Clinical hours are planned on a to-be-arranged basis.

Bachelor of Science in Organizational Management

Eileen White-Jahn, Ph.D., Chairperson

George Fasano, M.B.A., C.P.A., Associate Chairperson

Rupert Campbell, M.B.A., Associate Chairperson for Organizational Management, School of Professional and Graduate Studies

Designed to foster career and educational advancement, the Bachelor of Science degree in Organizational Management provides working adults with knowledge and skills pertaining to management, organizational behavior, and human resources for the purposes of promoting managerial effectiveness and the enhancement of human performance in organizations. It is a flexible degree that builds upon prior learning and life experience. In order to be admitted to the program, adults would typically be employed in a full-time position and would have substantial work experience involving supervision, program development, specialized training, considerable responsibility, and/or independent judgment. A minimum of 21 credits from Required and/or Elective Business Courses must be taken at St. Joseph's College (MAT 151 may be applied toward this requirement).

ORGANIZATIONAL MANAGEMENT ONLINE PROGRAM

The Bachelor of Science in Organizational Management is offered in the online format within the School of Professional and Graduate Studies. This online degree program has been designed for working adults with busy or variable schedules or those who are unable to attend classes at the College.

Pursuing this degree online will afford individual students the opportunity for continuous involvement with faculty and other students, exploring topics that relate to their lives and their work, with the aim of fostering authentic learning. The program builds on prior learning and experience, while fostering self-direction and respecting individual learning styles.

In order to participate in this program, adults would typically be employed in a full time position and will have substantial work experience involving supervision, program development, specialized training, considerable responsibility, and/or independent judgment. Students who succeed in online courses are highly motivated, organized, and self-disciplined. Online learning is an active experience that requires students to make a commitment to consistent involvement in their courses. Additional information about this program can be found at www.sjcnyc.edu.

Dual Bachelor of Science in Organizational Management/ Master of Business Administration

Dual-degree candidates must meet the general undergraduate and graduate admissions requirements of the School of Professional and Graduate Studies. Most candidates typically have post-secondary education and training and will have acquired, through experience, the skills and knowledge appropriate to the degree.

Undergraduates are eligible for admission to the M.B.A. program after completing 90 credits, 21 of which must be completed at St. Joseph's College. Applicants are required to complete (as part of the 90 credits), the following courses with a grade of C or better:

ACC 200	Fundamentals of Financial Accounting
BUS 100	Process of Management
BUS/ECO 120	Macroeconomics or BUS/ECO 226 Microeconomics
BUS 130	Organizational Behavior
COM 140	Microcomputer Applications I or COM 141 Microcomputer Applications II
ENG 103	Writing for Effective Communication
MAT 151	Fundamentals of Statistics

Equivalent courses from other accredited institutions will be considered. These courses include all prerequisite courses required for the graduate degree, as well as other courses deemed necessary by the department to provide students with a diversified foundation in management.

Applicants are required to have a 3.3 overall GPA and submit at least one letter of recommendation from a faculty member in his/her major, attesting to the student's readiness for graduate study. This recommendation must contain the approval of the department or associate chair.

M.B.A. applicants typically are required to have work experience involving supervision, program development, specialized training, considerable responsibility and/or independent judgment. Applicants for the B.S./M.B.A. can satisfy this requirement by completing a 3-credit internship during their junior or senior year. If an applicant's experiential qualifications fall short of the aforementioned criteria, the GMAT will be required.

ENG 103 WRITING FOR EFFECTIVE COMMUNICATION*

Analysis and application of the principles of effective writing. Skill development in the performance of various writing tasks. Research techniques also implemented.

(To be completed within first 18 credits of program.)

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

ENG 109 ANALYTICAL WRITING*

Emphasis on increasing student skill in the use of logical progression, clarity, analysis, and illustration in writing. Attention to grammar, sentence and paragraph structures, punctuation, and usage as a backdrop to effective exposition, argumentation, and editing of written material.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

ENG 110 COMMUNICATION FOR PROFESSIONALS*

This course is designed to provide students with communication theories and proficiencies needed in professional organizations. Students will study the structural principles of this type of communication and its specialized writing techniques and formats, strengthen critical and editing skills, polish grammar and vocabulary, examine verbal and non-verbal communication modes, develop expertise in speaking and listening effectively.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

ENG 115 THE SHORT STORY*

Definition, characteristics, developmental history, and stylistic trends of the short story as a literary form in different cultural traditions. Reading and interpretation of representative modern short stories both in English and in translation.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

ENG 119 A RAINBOW OF VOICES*

This course explores the ethnic richness which characterizes American literary history. Emphasis is placed on African-American, Native-American, and Asian-American literature, as well as on the Chicano and Puerto-Rican contributions to this complex and yet closely woven tapestry.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

ENG 256 THE BIBLE AS LITERATURE*

A study of the historical development of the Bible; literary analysis of selections from the Old Testament with emphasis on poetic and narrative elements.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

ENG 261 AFRICAN-AMERICAN LITERATURE*

A study of the contributions of the African-American community to the literature of the United States. The course will include folktales, the lyrics of spirituals, gospel and jazz compositions, slave narratives, works from the Harlem Renaissance and works of major writers such as Frederick Douglass, Harriet Jacobs, Langston Hughes, Zora Neale Hurston, Ralph Ellison, James Baldwin, Toni Morrison, Alice Walker.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

GS 090 WRITING SOLUTIONS

This non-credit program has been designed for those applicants whose skills on the writing sample fall below the basic level. These students meet with a writing instructor for a three-hour session twice each week for one semester, with the focus on fundamental writing instruction.

No grade/0 credit.

GS 110 PORTFOLIO AND CAREER DEVELOPMENT SEMINAR

A course designed to facilitate the assessment of prior learning for the purpose of composing and constructing an experiential portfolio. The assessment process consists of individualized exercises designed to help the student identify acquired skills and competencies and culminates in relating these to coursework as well as to career goals. Emphasis is placed on career planning, exploration, and development. This course is required of all students seeking prior experiential learning assessment credit. Students must take the GS 110 Portfolio and Career Development Seminar before their last semester. In order to register for the Seminar, students must be fully matriculated, have earned 36 credits toward their program at St. Joseph's or elsewhere, have attained a 2.5 index, have met with a P.E.L.A. advisor, and have obtained the advisor's written approval. (See campus based registration procedures for application deadlines). The P.E.L.A. Coordinator reserves the right to limit students' programs during the semester in which the students are enrolled in the Seminar.

Prerequisite: ENG 103, approval of P.E.L.A. coordinator.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits. Pass/No Credit.

GS 400 ADULTS IN TRANSITION*

Designed for adults, this seminar has two interrelated goals: 1) to provide the opportunity for self-exploration and understanding, and 2) to support the development of a life, career, and educational plan. Selected readings and exercises will focus on adult issues such as adult development through the life cycle, transitions, career exploration and development, life pattern differences between men and women, values, and the creation of meaningful, realistic personal goals.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits. Pass/No Credit.

GS 401 PROBLEM SOLVING FOR PROFESSIONALS*

This course focuses on the methodology of problem solving. Emphasis is placed on the application of various problem-solving models to life experience problems as well as to professional problems. Students will be asked to contribute problems from their own experience for analysis.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

GS 402 CRITICAL THINKING FOR PROFESSIONALS*

The goal of this course is to teach students the analytical skills necessary for the assessment and evaluation of arguments, reports, newspaper articles, and editorials as well as the application of these skills to the decision-making process attending their professional activities.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

GS 404 ADMINISTRATION AND THE LIBERAL ARTS* (HA 404)

This course, designed for management and health administration majors, focuses on the relationship between the liberal arts and the issues related to administration. With perspectives provided by the social sciences and the arts and humanities, this course explores the rise of the management dynamic; the growth of technology and industrial power; administrative styles; the effect of corporate and organizational life on the individual and society; the conflict between power and responsibility.

(Suggested antecedent course: BUS 100 or HA 481)

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

GS 406 COMMUNITY SERVICE-LEARNING*

This course is designed to provide students with the opportunity to engage in academic community service while reflecting on their experiences. Students will explore service-learning theory and civic engagement through class discussion and online forums. Together, the class will learn the processes of social change, community empowerment, and intervention strategies to remedy relevant social justice issues. An important focus of the course is on improving cultural sensitivity and fostering socioeconomic understanding. Current topics will be presented and analysed in the context of service-learning.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

GS 423 PRINCIPLES OF TRAINING AND STAFF DEVELOPMENT (CHA 423)

This course provides a survey of the methods used in the training and career development of employees in the service of individual and organizational effectiveness. Central to the course is its focus on planning, designing, and implementing an overall training and development effort for an organization.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

GS 424 TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT TECHNIQUES (CHA 424)

This course focuses on conducting a specific training and development program, including developing a needs analysis, creating program objectives, selecting an appropriate teaching methodology, identifying instructional aids, and developing an evaluation instrument.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

GS 427 SPECIAL TOPICS

This course provides students with the opportunity to participate in a focused exploration of a current topic pertaining to their field. Students may not earn more than 5 credits by taking CHA 426 or GS 427. Three one-credit options are not equivalent to a three-credit course, and cannot be applied to the requirement of major electives.

1 hour a week, 1 semester, 1 credit.

GS 468 PRACTICUM IN TRAINING AND STAFF DEVELOPMENT (CHA 468)

A supervised internship in training and staff development is made available to students on an individual basis. Approval required. Placements are arranged by students and instructor.

Prerequisites: Required courses for the Certificate in Training and Staff Development.

Hours to be arranged. Typically no evenings or weekends. 3 credits.

HIS 229 THE AFRICAN-AMERICAN EXPERIENCE*

A study of the major events and people; and the social, economic, political, and cultural trends that have shaped the African-American experience since 1619.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

HIS 276 HISTORY OF NEW YORK: STATE AND CITY*

An analysis of the history of New York from its Dutch beginnings to the present day. In addition to the study of particular events, issues and individuals of importance to the State's history, the emergence of New York City as a commercial, cosmopolitan center will be examined within the context of the region's overall development.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

HIS 335 AMERICAN CIVIL WAR AND RECONSTRUCTION*

An examination of why the crisis occurred when it did, of the main actors in the tragedy, and of the short and long range consequences of the War between the States.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

LIB 100 LIBRARY RESEARCH STRATEGIES*

This course instructs students on how to locate and evaluate information to meet their academic needs and to use the information accurately and ethically. Students will develop proficiency in searching techniques, paraphrasing and proper citation.

3 hours a week, 5 sessions, 1 credit.

MAT 111 COLLEGE ALGEBRA*

Properties of numbers and expressions; linear and quadratic equations; systems of equations; exponents and logarithms; functions; linear, quadratic, polynomial, exponential and logarithmic.

Not open to students who have completed MAT 113 or students with credit for any 200 level math course.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

MAT 113 ELEMENTARY FUNCTIONS: PRECALCULUS*

Introduction to the concept of functions: their graphs, elementary properties, geometric transformations, inverses and algebra of functions. Introduction to the elementary functions and their properties: linear, polynomial, rational, exponential, logarithmic and trigonometric functions. Designed for those who intend to go on to a calculus course.

Prerequisite: 11th year mathematics or equivalent.

Not available to students with credit for any 200 level math course.

Students will not receive credit for both MAT 111 and MAT 113.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

MAT 151 FUNDAMENTALS OF STATISTICS*

An introduction to statistics, including probability, sampling distributions, correlations, predictions, and hypothesis testing.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

MAT 200 MATHEMATICS FOR BUSINESS AND ECONOMICS*

This course includes the study of matrices, linear programming, the simplex method and the mathematics of finance. Basic business applications of precalculus mathematics will be discussed.

Prerequisite: MAT 111 or MAT 113 or equivalent.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

MAT 203 MATHEMATICAL FOUNDATIONS OF COMPUTER SCIENCE*

The emphasis will be on algorithmic problem solving and discrete mathematical concepts including logic, sets, Boolean algebra, relations, functions, induction and recursion, counting principles and combinatorics, graphs and trees. Use of the computer as a problem-solving tool will be integrated with the theory. Fundamental algorithms including sorting, searching, and tree traversal will be introduced.

Prerequisite: MAT 113 or equivalent.

4 hours a week, 1 semester, 4 credits.

MUS 100 THE UNDERSTANDING AND ENJOYMENT OF MUSIC*

This is a course in active listening through a survey of musical compositions from ancient times to present. Illustrative media, required attendance at one concert.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

MUS 205 JAZZ*

The phenomenon of jazz resounds far deeper than the music itself. It is a true manifestation of American ideals: democracy in action, freedom of choice through improvisation, and a national identity in music for African Americans. Class discussions of the lives of jazz performers and repertoire will be presented in their social and historical context. Illustrative media, required attendance at one concert.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits. Spring 2011

MUS 211 DEVELOPMENT OF MUSIC IN MOTION PICTURES*

This course examines film from the musical perspective: how music can enhance the desired effect of corresponding drama and images. A variety of films will be analysed from the classics of accomplished directors to popular films of today. Historical and other relevant background of selected music will be discussed. Through contrast and comparison, students will develop a greater understanding of how music is used in motion pictures and how this ultimately influences and shapes our perception of culture in the past, present, and future.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits. Fall

MUS 212 LATIN AMERICAN MUSIC*

This course is an introduction to Latin American music. Including the music of Cuba, Brazil, and Argentina, Latin American Music intends to provide the students with a closer perspective on the genre. Topics will include a discussion of instrumental music, translations of vocal text, as well as a focus on the percussive elements. Concerning the latter, a large part of the class will be spent introducing students to the principal elements of playing Latin percussion.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

MUS 213 DEVELOPMENT OF MUSIC IN MOTION PICTURES II*

Featuring a special emphasis on recently released films and music scores, this course continues to examine film from the musical perspective: how music can enhance the desired effect of corresponding drama and images, and how this ultimately influences and shapes our perception of culture. Historical traditions and other relevant background of selected music will be discussed.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

PHI 160 INTRODUCTION TO ETHICS*

What are the sources of morality? What makes an action right or wrong? What constitutes "the good life?" This course will explore these questions and examine related issues such as absolutism vs. relativism, objectivism vs. subjectivism, rules vs. outcomes. General theories will be applied to specific ethical dilemmas through discussion.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

PHI 268 ETHICS AND BUSINESS*

This course will examine the relation between ethical theory and business decisions, practices, and policies. The meaning of ethics will be discussed, and differences between morally right and other criteria of right action will be explored. Theory analysis and case studies will enable the student to make informed and intelligent value judgments concerning such issues as truth in advertising, affirmative action, profit motive, pollution, rights and responsibilities of workers.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

POL 203 POLITICAL AND CIVIL RIGHTS*

A study of the nature and practice of political and civil rights, with an emphasis placed upon the study of contemporary controversies, such as hate speech, separation of church and state, and the rights of the accused. Special attention will be paid to the interaction of political and judicial processes.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

POL 280 CONSTITUTIONAL LAW*

A study of the origin, theory and interpretation of the United States Constitution. Emphasis will be placed upon controversies surrounding the separation of powers, federalism and economic liberties.

Prerequisite: POL 102 or POL 103 or POL 203

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

PSY 100 INTRODUCTION TO PSYCHOLOGY*

A broad introduction to the concepts, methodology and major content areas of psychology designed to provide the student with a scientific basis for understanding human behavior.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

PSY 150 GROUP DYNAMICS AND COMMUNICATION* (CHS150)

A theoretical introduction to small group processes, with an emphasis on the relationship between groups and the individual, and the communication process. Students participate in small group exercises as part of the course requirements.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

PSY 180 PSYCHOLOGY OF WOMEN*

Examination of the biological, social and cultural influence on the psychological development of women. Focus on the vital issues which modern women face daily in a rapidly changing world.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

PSY 261 PSYCHOLOGY OF PERSONALITY*

RS 151 CONTEMPORARY APPROACHES TO MORALITY*

A survey of the principal trends in moral theology, tracing these trends from their biblical roots to the new insights of modern scholars.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits. Not offered in Brooklyn.

RS 168 THE SACRED QUEST - A STUDY OF WORLD RELIGIONS*

The religions of the world provide a great record of humanity's quest for the sacred in thought, ritual and artistic expression. From the earliest times of pre-history down to the present day, people have expressed their deepest convictions about the universe, about the great issues of life, and about the sacred in worship and in creed. This course will attempt to study some of the varied expressions of humanity's religious impulse through the various religious traditions that have developed in different cultures at different times.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

SOC 100 INTRODUCTORY SOCIOLOGY*

An introduction to sociology through a study of the basic concepts used in sociological analysis, particularly culture, types of social groups, processes of interaction, social class, population traits and trends.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

SOC 136 SOCIAL PROBLEMS*

An introduction to sociology through an examination of what society considers to be social problems with a view toward showing how society produces these phenomena and to what extent they are solvable. Areas include: crime, mental illness, drug abuse, alcoholism, other forms of deviance, poverty, racism, conflicts over power.

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

SOC 237 INEQUALITY AND SOCIAL CLASS*

Topics include: the values, lifestyles and ideologies of the various classes; the relationship of the classes to economic, political and educational institutions; changes in the class structure.

Prerequisite: SPC 102

3 hours a week, 1 semester, 3 credits.

ADDITIONAL PROGRAMS

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN GENERAL STUDIES

The Bachelor of Science in General Studies offers adults with nontraditional academic backgrounds, as well as those who have had previous college coursework, an opportunity to attain a bachelor's degree through a flexible course of study.

Personalized advisement is the key to this approach. With the assistance and guidance of a trained advisor, students design a program around their strengths, experiences, and aspirations, drawing from the various courses of the College. Many adults pursuing a career change appreciate the flexibility of this degree and continue on to pursue graduate degree programs. Of the 128 credits required for the degree, at least 60 must be in the liberal arts, including ENG 103 Writing for Effective Communication.

The Department reserves the right to require an additional English writing course(s) at any point in a student's program if deemed appropriate based on the student's writing level.

CERTIFICATE PROGRAMS

Application Procedures

The certificates offered through the School of Professional and Graduate Studies have been designed to meet specific needs of adult professionals. An applicant wishing to pursue a degree or certificate program within the School of Professional and Graduate Studies must be an adult with a high school diploma or its equivalent and be deemed capable of completing the requirements for the degree or certificate. In addition to having met the general admission requirements of the School, students typically have postsecondary education and training and have acquired, through experience, the skills and knowledge appropriate to the degree or certificate. Exceptions to this are made with the approval of the Dean. Additional requirements for majors or certificate programs are indicated in the Curricular Offerings section of this catalogue. A brief writing exercise may be required of applicants.

Conditional Acceptance

This is a special category of admission for an applicant who has satisfied the requirements to pursue a certificate but needs academic skill development. A person in this category will be required to take ENG 102 Basic Writing Skills or appropriate equivalent and GS 401 Problem Solving for Professionals in addition to the courses required for the certificate. The English and Problem Solving courses must be satisfactorily completed before registering for the third certificate course. This English course is offered only at the Brooklyn and Long Island Campuses. Conditional students must have a 2.0 average before being permitted to take more than 12 hours of coursework at the College. Conditional students must meet with an advisor who will determine the course sequence of the certificate program. (See the Admissions and Finances section of this catalogue.)

Practicum/Internship Policies

For several of the certificate programs, a supervised practicum is required. Students wishing to participate in one of these practicums (as well as CHS 466 Internship in Community Health and Human Services or HA 466 Internship in Health Administration and BUS 362 Internship in Business, which are not part of a certificate program) are required to submit an application and faculty recommendation(s) to insure that such students are at a point of academic and personal readiness. These materials will be reviewed by the Practicum Coordinator and/or the Department Chairperson. Applications for practicums are available from an academic advisor or the Registrar. Applications must be filed July 15 for Fall, December 15 for Spring and April 15 for Summer."

In order to be considered for a certificate practicum, students must, in addition, have completed all of the courses in the certificate program. Exceptions to this will require approval by the Practicum Coordinator and/or the Department Chairperson in consultation with the Dean. Students who, as a result of the application and recommendation process, are denied permission to participate in a practicum will not meet the requirements of the certificate program. The decision to deny participation will be made by the Practicum Coordinator and/or the Department Chairperson in consultation with the faculty member(s) who wrote the recommendation(s). When this is one and the same person, that person will consult with an additional faculty member appropriate to the certificate.

Students denied placement in a practicum may appeal this decision to the Dean. The Dean will endeavor to resolve the matter informally, and may consult with additional faculty members regarding the appropriateness of the decision. If the student is not satisfied with the decision rendered by the Dean, the student may submit a written request for a hearing. The hearing will be held within ten school days of receipt of the request. The decision rendered after the hearing will be final.

The College will make every effort to place qualified students to insure successful learning experiences. The College, however, will not be held responsible for problems which result from students who fail to cooperate in arranging satisfactory practicums or from students who do not perform up to the standards of the participating agency or of the College.

Students who are unable to work out satisfactory placements may have the situation reviewed by the Dean. Students who are asked to withdraw from the practicum may appeal the decision to the Dean. If that decision is not satisfactory, the student may request a hearing as noted above.

Depending upon the certificate and requirements of the agency/facility, students may be required to be covered by malpractice insurance or to sign a waiver, holding harmless both St. Joseph's College and the agency/ facility hosting the practicum. Students who do not satisfy this requirement will not be admitted to the practicum. The College reserves the right to require malpractice insurance (as opposed to the waiver) when the nature of the practicum so warrants.

Certificates within B.S. Degrees

Students who are pursuing a certificate as part of their degree program are encouraged to plan ahead to insure that the certificate coursework is taken in advance of completion of the degree requirements. Inasmuch as not all courses are offered every semester, at times convenient to students' schedules, and/or courses may be cancelled due to low enrollment, the College cannot be held responsible for guaranteeing certificate courses to graduating seniors. It is the responsibility of students to plan their programs carefully and take required coursework when it is offered. Students are reminded that satisfying the requirements for the major and degree is of greater importance than completing a certificate program. In instances where graduating seniors need a course(s) for a certificate, they may return after graduation and complete the coursework at that time.

Grades

Courses for certificates may not be taken on a Pass/No Credit basis. A cumulative index of a 2.0 with a grade of B or better in the practicum is required for certificates. Students who earn less than a grade of B will not typically be permitted to retake a practicum and will, therefore, not satisfy the requirements for the certificate. Exceptions to this will require approval by the Practicum Coordinator and/or the Department Chairperson in consultation with the Dean. Students who earn below a B in CHS 470 Practicum in Alcoholism and Addictions Counseling I may not register for CHS 471 Practicum in Alcoholism and Addictions Counseling II, or CHS 472 Practicum in Alcoholism and Addictions Counseling III.

Official Records/Fees

Certificates will not be issued until all official records have been received by the College. There is a certificate fee of $10 due for each certificate completed. (See the Tuition and Fees section of this catalogue.)

Certificate in Alcoholism and Addictions Counseling

This 28 credit certificate is designed to prepare health, human services, and human resources practitioners to provide counseling and referral services to persons affected by alcoholism, drug abuse and dependency.

Courses taken for the Certificate in Alcoholism and Addictions Counseling may be applied toward the B.S. degrees in Community Health and Human Services, Health Administration, and Organizational Management.

St. Joseph's College has been granted Education/Training Provider status (#AI 0016 AL) by the New York State Office of Alcoholism and Substance Abuse Services (OASAS) for the purposes of the Credentialed Alcoholism and Substance Abuse Counselor (CASAC) examination process. For current information on the certificate, consult with an advisor.

Professional standards of conduct and adherence to the ethical principles of OASAS (such as avoidance of any illegal psychoactive substances or abusing any legal substances, including alcohol and prescription medications) will be required as a precondition for participation in the practicums. In addition, agencies/facilities offering practicums reserve the right to conduct appropriate tests to assure compliance with the foregoing.

(A minimum of 19 credits toward this certificate must be taken at St. Joseph's College. Approval is necessary before registering for the practicum. Students who earn below a B in CHS 470 may not register for CHS 471, and students who earn below a B in CHS 471 may not register for CHS 472. Approval required to take CHS 470, CHS 471, and CHS 472 concurrently. A cumulative index of 2.0 with a grade of B or better in the practicums is required for the certificate.)

Certificate in Care Management

This 12 credit program shows students how to organize and provide services to special populations such as the aging, the mentally ill, and the chronically ill. Working closely with families, care managers form the bridge between the client and the services needed. This certificate will focus on human services expertise while introducing social work care management skills. Typically, students pursuing this certificate would be adults already working in the human services field, specializing in gerontology, child and family welfare, mental health, addictions, or support for the terminally ill.

Courses for the Certificate in Care Management may be applied toward the B.S. in Community Health and Human Services, Health Administration, or General Studies. Organizational Management students may apply this course work to the non-elective portion of their program.

Certificate in Hospice

This 15 credit certificate is designed to provide a focused course of study for health and human services practitioners who intend to pursue a career path or perform volunteer duties in a hospice environment. The courses of this certificate will present students with the skills and knowledge necessary to provide hospice services relevant to their professional concentration in both inpatient and home care hospice settings. There are two components to this certificate program. The first is composed of three required courses and one elective course intended to provide essential knowledge and skills in the areas of death and dying, hospice fundamentals, and crisis intervention. By selecting an appropriate elective, students will be able to direct their learning to best suit their personal and professional goals. The second component of the certificate provides students with the opportunity to apply this knowledge through actual field experience in hospice.

Courses taken for the Certificate in Hospice may be applied toward the B.S. in Community Health and Human Services, Health Administration, or General Studies.

FACULTY DATA

To meet the specialized professional needs of many of its students, the College has created a special category of faculty called preceptors. Most of the preceptors maintain their regular professional affiliations, thereby providing students with the full benefit of their expertise. There are 12 preceptors in Community Health and Human Services, 6 preceptors in Health Administration, 22 preceptors in General Studies, 18 preceptors in Accounting/Organizational Management, and 7 preceptors in Mathematics/Computer Science.

In addition to full-time faculty and preceptors, the following numbers of lecturers (part-time, adjunct faculty) taught in the School of Professional and Graduate Studies: Community Health and Human Services 10, Health Administration 12, General Studies 24, Accounting/Organizational Management 18, Mathematics/Computer Science 9.

STUDENT RETENTION AND GRADUATION

Most of the students in the School of Professional and Graduate Studies (Brooklyn and Long Island Campuses) are part-time students. Of the 211 matriculated students entering in the Fall of 2002, 90% returned in September 2003. Of the Fall 2002 group, 49% graduated by June 2006, 5% in June 2007, and 2% in June 2008, bringing the total percentage of students that graduated by June 2008 to 56%. Ten percent of the initial cohort are still matriculated for the baccalaureate degree.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The College is committed to the belief that its responsibility to its graduates never ends. For this reason, it supports Alumni religious, cultural, and social activities wholeheartedly and offers to the Association the use of its facilities and the benefit of its assistance. There is an Alumni Office on both the Brooklyn Campus and Long Island Campus.

The Alumni Association of St. Joseph's College is organized to promote the interest of the College by continuing the close relationship between the College and its former students that was developed during their undergraduate and graduate days. Its membership includes all those upon whom the College has conferred a degree and those who have matriculated and indicated a desire to remain associated with the College.

It is governed by an Executive Board composed of alumni, who work in conjunction with the Assistant Vice President for Alumni Relations and Stewardship. The Alumni Association provides a scholarship aid program for relatives of alumni at the discretion of the Alumni Scholarship Fund Committee. Alumni receive the St. Joseph's College Magazine, which is published three times a year.

INSTRUCTIONAL PROGRAMS

Enrollment in other than registered or otherwise approved programs may jeopardize a student's eligibility for certain student aid awards. The following programs have been registered by the New York State Education Department for St. Joseph's College.
